GAMEDAY GUIDE

The following information is subject to change. For the latest version, visit calbears.com/gameday.

ACCESSIBILITY SERVICES (ADA INFORMATION)

Cal Athletics is committed to guests with disabilities. California Memorial Stadium is fully accessible, and provides a wide range of services and amenities for guests with special needs.

The renovated California Memorial Stadium is designed with many ADA accessible services including: power-assisted doors, elevators, restrooms, concessions, water fountains, ATMs and seating areas. Guests can receive more information by visiting one of our Guest Services Centers. For questions regarding ADA ticket information, please contact the Athletic Ticket Office at (800) GO BEARS (462-3277).

Fans sitting in ADA seats on the East rim of the stadium should enter from gates 8, 9 or 10.

All permanent restrooms are ADA accessible. See restrooms for additional information.

GAMEDAY SHUTTLES

Cal offers free game day shuttles for fans in need of assistance getting to and from California Memorial Stadium. Shuttle service starts two hours prior to game time.

There are several shuttle routes that service the stadium - Downtown Berkeley BART Station to Greek Theater; North Loop servicing Genetics Garage/Tolman/North Gate to the Greek Theater; South Loop servicing Channing/Ellsworth/Annahead West/Underhill to International House; Clark Kerr to International House; Media Shuttle from Underhill to Warring Alley.

Postgame shuttles will be available on Bancroft Way to return patrons to BART/Lots. ADA Shuttles will be available across from Haas School of Business post game. ADA shuttles will depart 30 minutes after the end of game.

GOLF CARTS

Golf cart service is available for guests with limited mobility. Golf cart pick up locations are as follows:

Pregame - International House, Kroeber Plaza, Upper & Lower Hearst Lots, Witter Lot, Warring Alley, Gridiron Way (Gate 1), Prospect Lot (Gate 6)

Postgame - Gridiron (Gate 1), Prospect (Gate 6), Centennial & Rimway, Haas School of Business, Rugby Field House, International House

ALCOHOL POLICY

- Outside alcohol is not permitted in California Memorial Stadium.
- Age Verification - a valid ID or driver's license is required to purchase alcohol. All guests appearing under 35 years of age will be asked to provide an ID. Guests will receive a hand stamp upon showing proper identification.
- Impairment - Alcohol will not be served to any guest who is or appears to be impaired.

- Limit - Guests may only purchase two alcoholic beverages per person, per transaction.

ANIMALS

No pets or animals are permitted. Guide, signal, and service dogs are allowed inside California Memorial Stadium with fans that need their assistance.

BAG POLICY

Clear backpacks and bags will be allowed inside the stadium, provided they (and the contents inside them) meet defined specifications. Each person attending a game will be allowed to bring in one large clear bag - either a one-gallon re-sealable plastic storage bag or a 12" by 12" by 6" clear bag - plus a small clutch.

Exceptions will be made for patrons with diaper bags or medical needs. In such cases, fans should use the far left entrance at each gate where security personnel will examine and approve the items.

BANNERS & SIGNS

To accommodate the viewing pleasure of fellow guests, signs and banners (of any kind) are not allowed inside California Memorial Stadium.

BLUE AND GOLD ZONE

Starting when gates open until the end of the third quarter, all kids are invited to the Blue and Gold Zone. Located on the concourse level between sections G and GG, the Blue and Gold Zone will feature attractions like a uniform photo station, Cal Spell Outs, music and more. Opens: two hours prior to kick off. Closes: End of third quarter. Cost: Free admission for kids of all ages with valid game ticket.

BROADCAST INFORMATION

Cal football game broadcasts can be heard on KGO Radio 810 AM and online via TuneIn Radio — <https://tunein.com/radio/Cal-Bears-Sports-Network-s206507/>

CAMERAS/PHOTOGRAPHY

Guests may bring personal, still-photo cameras (lenses longer than five inches to "three inches) to capture special moments from California Memorial Stadium. Video cameras and monos/tripods are not permitted. Any photography and/or videotaping for commercial purposes is also prohibited without a licensing agreement from Cal Athletics. Cameras must not interfere with other guests' enjoyment of the game. Stadium management reserves the right to ask guests to put cameras or video equipment away. Selfie sticks are not allowed.

CHILD LOCATOR WRISTBAND

Parents and guardians are encouraged to bring their child to one of the guest services locations to receive a child locator wristband. The wristband will have the child's seat location as well as an emergency contact number in case the child is separated from the party.

CHILDREN'S TICKET POLICY (AGE REQUIREMENT)

All persons 24 months and older must have a ticket to enter. Children under 24 months must be held in a lap and cannot interfere with other guests' viewing of the game.

CLUB LEVELS (UNIVERSITY, STADIUM, FIELD)

For information on California Memorial Stadium's club levels and club benefits, visit CalBears.com.

CODE OF CONDUCT

Cal Athletics is committed to serving our fans by providing a safe, comfortable, and enjoyable game day experience. Our Fan Code of Conduct has been established to ensure that your experience is consistent with our commitment. Failure to follow this code will result in ejection from the facility, revocation of ticket privileges, and/or arrest. Although season-ticket holders may provide their tickets to others, the account holder of record is responsible for the actions of those using their tickets.

THE FOLLOWING ACTIONS ARE PROHIBITED:

- Any action that disrupts other guests' enjoyment of the game
- Possession of any item listed on the "Prohibited Items List"
- Use of foul, abusive, or obscene language or gestures
- Fighting, taunting, or threatening remarks or gestures
- Intoxication or signs of impairment related to alcohol or drug use
- Fans that appear to be inebriated and unmanageable will not be permitted admittance into the stadium and may be subject to arrest
- Failure to follow the directions of law enforcement or stadium management
- Sitting in a seat other than one's ticketed seat location
- Engaging in action that causes a disruption or interferes with the game
- Refusal to remove clothing deemed offensive or obscene
- Smoking and/or tobacco use

COMMERCIAL ACTIVITIES

All commercial activities are prohibited.

CREDIT CARDS

For your convenience, the Cal Athletic Ticket Office, permanent concession stands and permanent merchandise booths accept Visa, MasterCard, Discover (except Cal Athletic Ticket Office) and American Express.

EJECTION

Fans that refuse to follow the direction of stadium management or fail to comply with the Fan Code of Conduct may be subject to ejection and/or arrest without a refund of their game ticket and may lose ticket privileges.

EMERGENCY INFORMATION

Should you need immediate assistance, please notify the nearest event staff member, security personnel, police officer or guest services representative.

EVACUATION

In the event of a serious emergency at California Memorial Stadium that requires evacuation, all event staff, event security, police and emergency response agencies are ready and available to assist guests, including guests with disabilities. Pertinent information regarding the emergency situation and evacuation procedures will be provided over the public address system and on the stadium video board. Please remain calm and follow the directions of the public address announcer and nearest stadium management representative.

FIELD ACCESS

Fans are reminded that attempting to enter or access the playing field without the proper credential may be considered criminal trespassing and is grounds for immediate ejection and arrest.

FIRST AID

First aid services are located on the concourse level at section F/FF and on the East rim at Section R.

GATE INFORMATION

California Memorial Stadium gates open two hours prior to kickoff.

GUEST SERVICES CENTERS & LOCATIONS

Guests needing assistance should visit one of the guest services centers located on the plaza level across from Gate 2, on the concourse level at section H/HH and on the East rim (Section QQ).

LACTATION ROOMS

Private space for breastfeeding or use of breast pump. Concourse Sections X & I.

LOST & FOUND

All guests looking to claim or report lost items during the event should do so at the nearest Guest Services. Because UCPD is the central repository for items lost and found on campus, all lost items, with the exception of clothing, are turned over to UCPD at the conclusion of the event. Clothing items will be discarded at end of the event. Guests inquiring about lost items from previous events should call the UCPD Non-Emergency line at (510) 642-6760. Guests can also check the UCPD lost and found database online at police.berkeley.edu/lostnfound/. Cal Athletics or UCPD cannot be held responsible for lost or damaged items.

LOST CHILDREN AND GUESTS

Children and guests who are separated from their party will be escorted by stadium management to the nearest Guest Services. For safety reasons, we are unable to make stadium-wide announcements for lost children or guests. Parents are encouraged to stop by a Guest Services location to get a child locator wristband when they first arrive.

MARCH TO VICTORY

A Cal football tradition, March to Victory takes place approximately two hours before kickoff of each home game. Golden Bear fans form a human tunnel outside the grand stairs leading up to the plaza on the north side of California Memorial Stadium to cheer on the team as it marches into the locker room.

PERMITTED AND PROHIBITED ITEMS

The following items are prohibited inside California Memorial Stadium. All guests are subject to search before being admitted into California Memorial Stadium (see bag policy). Items left outside the stadium by guests will be disposed of by stadium staff. Prohibited items are subject to change.

PROMOTIONS/GIVEAWAYS

Guests who win a game day promotion or giveaway should report to Guest Services located on the concourse at section H. Visit CalBears.com and select the promotions page for information on game day promotions.

RADIOS

Hand-held radios for personal use are allowed in the stadium as long as they do not distract from the enjoyment of other guests. The use of headphones is required.

RE-ENTRY

Re-entry into California Memorial Stadium is not permitted. No "in and out" privileges are allowed.

RESTROOMS

- Restroom facilities are located behind the following sections:
- ADA: All concourse restrooms and ADA portalets on east rim
 - Family Restrooms: Sections KK, EE, C
 - Women's Restrooms: Sections A-X, C-D, F, HH, JJ-KK, LL-M
 - Men's Restrooms: AA-BB, DD-EE, I-II, L-LL, W-WW
 - East Rim: Portalets
 - Clubs: All club levels have restroom facilities

SAFETY WARNING

The nature of live sporting events presents the possibility that objects (footballs, playing equipment, etc.) could enter the seating areas from the playing field. For the safety of every guest, all guests are asked to remain alert and be aware of their surroundings at all times while visiting California Memorial Stadium.

SKATEBOARDING/ROLLERBLADING/SCOOTERS/HOVER BOARDS

Skateboarding, skating, scooter, or hover board riding inside California Memorial Stadium is prohibited. Roller shoes, athletic shoes with retractable wheels, are also not allowed.

SMOKING

In accordance with university policy, California Memorial Stadium is a non-smoking facility. Guests are not permitted to use any type of cigarette, cigar, chewing, smokeless tobacco, or e-cigarettes. There are no designated smoking areas. Advertising tobacco products on campus is not permitted. Guests that do not comply with the smoking policy are subject to ejection and/or arrest.

SOLICITATION LITERATURE

Without prior approval from Cal Athletics, the distribution of solicitation literature of any kind is prohibited at all Cal Athletic Events.

STANDING/SITTING

Fans entering California Memorial Stadium are asked to enjoy the game from the comfort of the seat indicated on their ticket. Please keep in mind that when you stand, you block the view of others. We encourage fans to cheer, but continuous standing in the seating areas, on seat backs or bleacher seats, and standing or sitting in the aisles, on the ramps, in the stairways is not permitted.

STROLLERS

Free stroller check-in available on Goldman Plaza. Smaller, collapsible strollers can be stored underneath a seat as long as they do not create an obstruction for other fans. Strollers not picked up within 30 minutes from the end of the game will be turned into Lost & Found.

STUDENTS (GATE, TICKET & SECTION INFORMATION)

Cal Students with a Cal Student season pass on their ID must enter the stadium at Gate 8 or 10. Wristbands will be distributed at the top of the student sections. You must obtain a wristband for admission into the student section.

TICKET INFORMATION

TICKETS - DISCLAIMER

The holder of this ticket agrees to abide by all policies, code of conduct, and regulations promulgated by Cal Athletics pertaining to events held on the Cal campus. This ticket must not be resold or offered for resale in a manner or at a price in violation of any Federal, State, or local law regulations. No umbrellas, backpacks, balls, open beverages, alcohol, glass/ metal bottles, cans, or large containers are allowed. Prohibited items are subject to change - please refer to CalBears.com for full updates. All bags are subject to search. No refunds or exchanges. Reprint charges will be incurred. All persons 24 months and older must have a ticket to enter.

Game dates and times are subject to change; please consult CalBears.com for date and time changes.

TICKETS - LOST OR STOLEN

Tickets that are lost, stolen, or left at home can be replaced for a $10 service fee per ticket. Tickets will be replaced only for the original purchaser/account holder, no exceptions. Replacement tickets take precedence over the original tickets. Only tickets purchased or received from the Cal Athletic Ticket Office or authorized outside agencies are guaranteed to be valid. The Cal Athletic Ticket Office does not guarantee tickets purchased or received from a second party. The Cal Athletic Ticket Office reserves the right to revoke all ticket privileges in the case of fraud.

TICKETS - GAME DAY TICKET ISSUES

Assistance with any ticket problems can be addressed by contacting the Cal Athletic Ticket Office, and directing guests to the ticket windows below Gate 1 or at Gate 6. Guests with a ticket issue at a gate will NOT be allowed access into the stadium. If a problem arises after entering the stadium, please contact the Guest Service station or an usher. If the problem cannot be resolved by stadium security, game-day ticket concerns can be handled at Ticket Services at the Ticket Plaza. Ticket windows are open four hours prior to game time and close at the end of the third quarter.

TICKETS - RE-SALE/SCALPING

California state law prohibits the unauthorized resale of tickets in, on, or around University property. Any such violation will be addressed by stadium staff and/or the University of California Police Department. People caught selling event tickets in violation of federal, state, or local law may have their tickets and their right to purchase future tickets to Cal athletic events revoked. To avoid counterfeit or stolen tickets, please purchase your tickets through the Cal Athletic Ticket Office.

CALIFORNIA MEMORIAL STADIUM

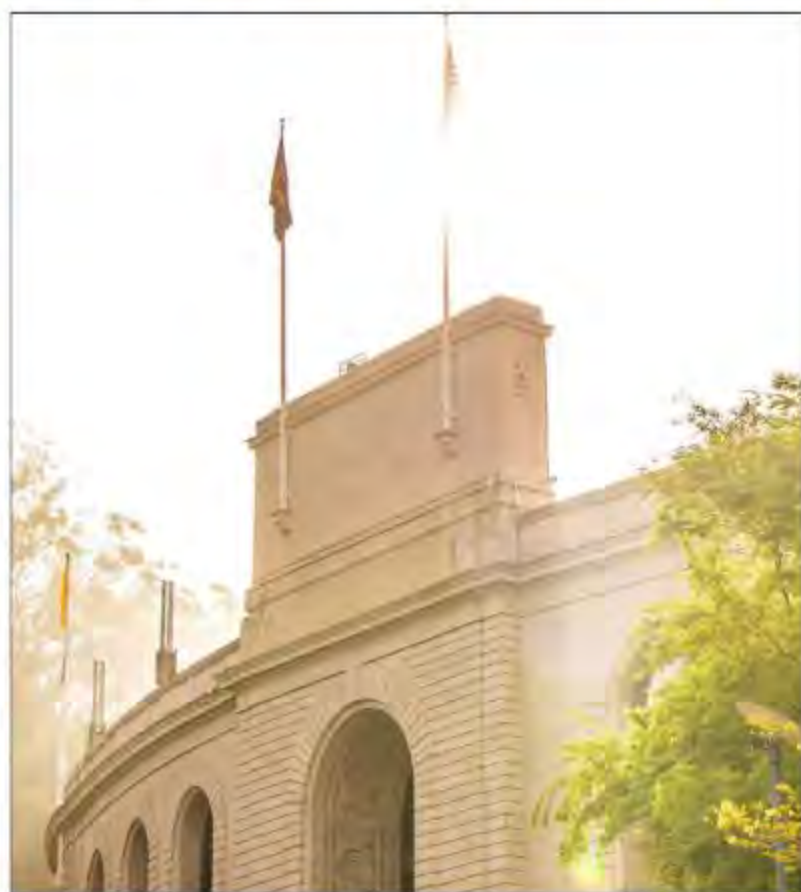

Since it opened in the fall of 1923, California Memorial Stadium has produced scores of unforgettable memories for generations of Golden Bears. The facility, which marks its 101st season in 2024, has treated fans of all ages to many of the greatest moments in the history of Cal football. It stands as one of the most enduring symbols of the University of California campus and has served as a gathering point for students, alumni, faculty, staff and other supporters.

In 2012, the historic building began a new era following an extensive retrofit and renovation that brought it up to modern standards for fans and student-athletes alike, creating a more enjoyable environment for the hundreds of thousands of people who visit and partake in games every year – all while maintaining the architecture and character of the celebrated stadium.

Since then, several more upgrades have been made to enhance the gameday experience in Strawberry Canyon. In 2022, new turf was installed and each end zone was branded with the traditional blue California script on a solid background. Fans will also notice a distinct jagged mark running along opposite corners of the field, just outside the playing area, designed to represent a fault line in recognition of the facility's unique location directly above the Hayward Fault.

New luxury open-air suites have been made available for fans to purchase in the South end zone and along the East Rim of the stadium, in addition to tabletop lodge seating in the Southwest corner on the field level. Additionally, two private suites in the press box, which can accommodate groups of up to 20 guests each, are now open for fans to purchase in order to enjoy a spectacular overhead view of the game and the surrounding sights of the Bay Area.

SIMPSON CENTER FOR STUDENT-ATHLETE

The Simpson Center for Student-Athlete High Performance is a revolutionary student-athlete Athletic Performance, Coaching, Applied Sports Science and Sports Medicine Center that opened in January of 2012. The Simpson Center embodies a philosophy designed to build a competitive advantage, maximize efficiency, and enhance student-athlete experience.

A 142,000 square-foot facility, the Simpson Center is a state-of-the-art complex that provides year-round access for over 450 student-athletes. The Simpson Center is home to the locker rooms, meeting rooms, and coach's offices for Cal Football and 12 Golden Bear Olympic sports for use on a daily basis.

HIGH PERFORMANCE

THE SIMPSON CENTER PROVIDES:

- Performance Training & Evaluation
- Therapy, Rehabilitation & Reconditioning
- Academic Support Services & Study Area
- Dedicated Team Room, Locker Room, and Office Space
- Nutrition & Food Service
- Medical Clinic

The signature feature of the Simpson Center is the High Performance Zone – a fully integrated training space with world-class Athletic Performance Training, Sports Medicine, and Sports Science services & equipment. Developed with athletic performance in mind, high quality equipment, and an open layout to provide impressive training options for student-athletes to prepare for the highest levels of competition.

The abundance of state of the art equipment and strategic layout provides student-athletes with optimal training conditions. This multi-purpose space encompasses 18,700 square feet, spans two stories and stretches the length of a football field, which is outfitted with over 50,000 pounds of weight with 22 fully customized workstations with inlaid platforms. Each workstation is equipped with the latest technology and monitoring equipment. With optimal efficiency and supervision in mind, the facility was designed to accommodate 100 student-athletes and multiple teams or position groups at the same time. Student-athletes are able to complete a full training session without the need to move or wait for equipment.

Some of the state of the art equipment used in the Simpson center includes Catapult GPS systems, 24 iPad Kiosks at each training station, Sparta force plates, and more. Cal uses this technology to help paint a picture of what's going on with our teams and what adjustments need to be made in order to provide the optimal stimulus for each of our athletes. The data from this technology allows us to see how our athletes are adapting to different stimuli and to assure that they are getting just enough of what they need. The technology also provides the data necessary to optimally individualize programs. Everyone adapts to stress differently, these modalities allow us to see who needs to be pulled back due to fatigue, and who can be pushed because of adequate recovery allowing our athletes to receive the optimal training stimulus.

Other features in the Simpson Center include an athletic training room, rehabilitation space, underwater & AlterG treadmills, cold plunges, medical suite, fitness studio, dining hall, fueling station, nutritional support, academic support, team meeting room, locker rooms and player lounge – all just a few steps away.

Justin Allegri

THE FLAGSHIP STATION

KGO 810 AM is entering its 51st season as the flagship station of California football in 2024. KGO Radio's 50,000 watts has been carrying the Golden Bears since 1974. Led by play-by-play announcer Justin Allegri, KGO's signal, along with the other affiliates within the Cal Bears Sports Network powered by Learfield, provides statewide coverage of Cal football. Each KGO broadcast begins 60 minutes before kickoff. Then after all the action, the hour-long postgame show features reaction from the Bears' locker room followed by a breakdown of the game.

IN THE BROADCAST BOOTH

Justin Allegri is in his second season as the voice of the Golden Bears. Prior to his arrival at Cal, Allegri spent 11 years as the voice of San Jose State's football and men's basketball teams. A native of Santa Cruz, he received a bachelor's and master's degree from SJSU.

Allegri has also served as a part-time broadcaster for Minor League Baseball's San Jose Giants, and can be heard on Sony PlayStation's "MLB The Show."

Allegri also serves as the voice of Cal's men's basketball team and is the host of the "Bear In Mind" podcast, which features bi-weekly interviews with Golden Bear coaches, student-athletes and staff.

Former Cal quarterback Mike Pawlawski is in his 13th season and second stint as part of the Cal football broadcast team in 2024. He has also been a TV football broadcaster since 2000, working for entities such as Comcast SportsNet, FOX and NBC.

Pawlawski led Cal to bowl victories as the Bears' starting quarterback in 1990 and 1991, and was the Pac-10's Co-Offensive Player of the Year as a 1991 senior.

TRAVERS FAMILY HEAD FOOTBALL COACH - 12TH SEASON AT CAL/8TH IN CURRENT POSITION

Justin Wilcox has compiled a long list of accomplishments and signature wins during his first seven seasons as the Travers Family Head Football Coach at Cal and is in his first campaign in the Atlantic Coast Conference in 2024. Wilcox is the first Cal head coach to win the Big Game three straight times on the road since Pappy Waldorf captured six straight at Stanford from 1937-51. The 2023 victory at Stanford was Cal's fourth win in the Big Game in the last five meetings, including three in a row overall (2021-23) and the third straight on The Farm (2019, '21, '23). The Bears have also won a combined five times over in-state rivals UCLA and USC during Wilcox's tenure and ended long losing streaks Wilcox inherited from his predecessors with multiple victories against USC and Washington. In 2018 and 2019, Wilcox led Cal to back-to-back winning campaigns and bowl games for the first time since 2008 and 2009, then returned to a bowl in 2023. The Bears have knocked off five teams that either won Pac-12 titles that season or were reigning league champs during Wilcox's tenure and have taken down four top-20 teams in No. 8/9 Washington State (2017), No. 15/13 Washington (2018), No. 14/12 Washington (2019) and No. 23/21/20 Oregon (2020).

Most recently, he led the Golden Bears to bowl-eligibility and a Radiance Technologies Independence Bowl selection in 2023 after wins in each of their final three regular-season games at home against Washington State and then on the road at state rivals Stanford and UCLA. Cal's other victories in 2023 came at North Texas in the season opener and at home against Idaho and Arizona State. Five of the team's seven losses were against ranked teams; at No. 5 Washington in its' Pac-12 opener and then in a school-record four straight games against ranked squads (No. 15 Oregon State, at No. 16 Utah, No. 24 USC, at No. 6 Oregon). The Bears also fell to perennial national powerhouse Auburn in their home opener and Texas Tech in the Independence Bowl. All seven teams Cal was defeated by and UCLA played in bowl games with Washington reaching the championship game of the College Football Playoff, while Idaho reached the quarterfinals of the FCS Playoffs.

The 2023 Bears featured honorable mention All-American (Phil Steele), first-team All-Pac-12 selection, the Pac-12's rushing champion and 2024 Heisman Trophy candidate running back Jaydn Ott, who led the league and ranked among the nation's best in all-purpose yards per game (135.67, #6 NCAA), rushing yards per game (109.6 ypg, #9 NCAA) and rushing yards (1315, #14 NCAA). Ott, who had five of the Pac-12's top nine games for rushing yards in 2023 while no one else had more than one, also tied for second in the Pac-12 with 15 total touchdowns (#19T NCAA) and second with 12 rushing touchdowns (#29T NCAA). Ott led a rushing offense that averaged 172.8 yards per game on the ground in 2023, which was fourth in the Pac-12 and Cal's highest mark since 2012. Four games of 235 yards or more with a 357-yard rushing game in the season-opener at North Texas was the most by the Bears since rushing for 431 against Washington in 2008. The 2023 defense led the nation with 16 fumbles recovered and tied for the national lead with 28 turnovers gained, both leading the Pac-12. In addition, the Bears' three defensive touchdowns were second in the Pac-12 and tied for 15th nationally. All six players from Cal's 2023 Independence Bowl squad that were honored on the All-Pac-12 Team last season return in 2024, with Ott joined by second-team punter Lachlan Wilson, honorable mention choices outside linebacker David Reese and defensive back Craig Woodson, and a pair of freshman honorees in Pac-12 Freshman Defensive Player of the Year inside linebacker Cade Uluave and Freshman Offensive Player of the Year honorable mention selection quarterback Fernando Mendoza. Uluave and tight end Jack Endries were also 2023 Freshman All-American picks with Uluave a three-time first-teamer (College Football Network, FWAA, The Athletic) while Endries earned first-team recognition from College Football News and second-team honors from The Athletic in addition to being an honorable mention choice of the College Football Network.

The Bears built on their momentum at the end of the 2023 regular season and have added 40 scholarship players to their 2024 roster including 18 that arrived on campus in January and participated in 2024 spring practice. Cal's transfer portal recruiting class currently ranks No. 14 according to On3. The Bears are scheduled to have 55 new players when the team's 2024 training camp begins including 28 first-year transfers.

Wilcox has coached 12 players as Cal's head coach who are currently on NFL rosters in Christopher Brooks (Miami), Camryn Bynum (Minnesota), Jake Curhan (Seattle), Ashtyn Davis (New York Jets), Cameron Goode (Miami), Jaylinn Hawkins (New England), Elijah Hicks (Chicago), Patrick Morris (Miami), Patrick Mekari (Baltimore), Daniel Scott (Indianapolis, injured reserve), Jackson Sirmon (New York Jets) and Jake Tonges (San Francisco). A total of 28 Cal players since Wilcox became the Bears' head coach in 2017 have been on NFL rosters.

Wilcox also spent three seasons as Cal's linebackers coach from 2003-05 in his first position as a full-time coach following two campaigns as a graduate assistant at Boise State (2001-02). The Bears posted a 26-12 record during his first stint in Berkeley with trips to the Insight, Holiday and Las Vegas bowls.

MIKE BLOESCH

OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR/OFFENSIVE LINE COACH
2ND SEASON AT CAL/1ST IN CURRENT ROLE

Mike Bloesch is in his second season on Cal's coaching staff in 2024 and his first full year as the Golden Bears' offensive coordinator/offensive line coach. Bloesch was Cal's offensive line coach/run game coordinator during the 2023 regular season before being elevated to offensive coordinator/offensive line coach on December 2, 2023.

Bloesch served in his current role in Cal's appearance at the Radiance Technologies Independence Bowl to conclude a 2023 season in which he was given much of the credit for the improvement of an offensive line that helped the running game average 172.8 yards per game, which was its highest mark since 2012. He helped keep Cal's offensive line mostly intact throughout the season with three members – Brian Driscoll, Barret Miller and T.J. Session – starting all 13 games, while Matthew Wykoff (12) and Siopie Vatikani (11) missed just three starts between them. Bloesch facilitated Driscoll's move from starting left guard to center. He engineered Cal's tremendous improvements in protecting the quarterback, improving from 10th to fourth in the Pac-12 in per game sacks allowed (2.58 to 1.77). He produced a trio of Pac-12 Offensive Lineman of the Week selections in Driscoll (Week 1 at North Texas; Week 11 vs. Washington State) and Miller (Week 12 at Stanford).

Bloesch got off to a strong recruiting start at Cal in 2023, highlighted by landing a pair of proven Power 5 transfer portal offensive linemen in Miller (Stanford) and Wykoff (Texas A&M) as part of a 2023 spring transfer portal class that was listed by The Athletic as one of its' 10 "winners," while also being recognized by On3 (1 of 12 "winners") and 247Sports (No. 17 overall class). He then followed up his 2023 recruiting efforts by securing a 2024 transfer portal class that is currently ranked No. 14 by On3.

Bloesch most recently spent three seasons at North Texas and helped lead the Mean Green to bowl appearances in each campaign, serving as the offensive coordinator in 2021 and 2022 after being a co-offensive coordinator in 2020. He was also the quarterbacks coach in 2022 while working with the offensive linemen in 2020 and 2021.

Prior to North Texas, Bloesch spent five campaigns at Tulsa (2015-19) including the final four as the offensive line coach after one working in quality control with the tight ends.

He started in collegiate coaching in 2014 as an analyst at his alma mater Houston when the team finished the season 8-5 and won the Armed Forces Bowl.

Bloesch's offenses have been known for protecting the quarterback with each of his last two squads ranking in the top 10 nationally in fewest sacks allowed, while his balanced offensive attacks were highlighted by a 2020 North Texas unit that averaged 513.2 yards of total offense per game (283.0 passing, 230.2 rushing) to rank eighth in the nation. In 2016 at Tulsa, his offensive line paved the way for a team that finished 10-3 and ranked among the nation's top 10 in total offense (527.0, No. 4), scoring offense (42.5, No. 7) and rushing offense (261.7, No. 8).

While playing for Houston, Bloesch started 37 consecutive collegiate games at offensive guard, while helping the Cougars to their first bowl victory in 28 years with a win at the 2008 Armed Forces Bowl. He earned Conference USA honorable mention all-conference honors in 2007 and 2008.

Bloesch earned his bachelor's degree in kinesiology and sports administration from Houston in 2007 and received a master's degree in education administration from Lamar in 2013. He and his wife, Lexi, have two sons – Beau and Drew -- and daughter Kate.

PETER SIRMON

DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR/INSIDE LINEBACKERS COACH - 7TH SEASON AT CAL/5TH IN CURRENT ROLE

Peter Sirmon is in his seventh season at Cal and fifth campaign as the Golden Bears' defensive coordinator in 2024, while he also continues to be the program's inside linebackers position coach for the seventh consecutive campaign. Sirmon started at Cal in 2018 as the inside linebackers coach before adding co-defensive coordinator and recruiting coordinator duties to his role in 2019. He also served as the recruiting coordinator for three seasons from 2019-21.

Sirmon has been instrumental in developing a multitude of key defensive players at Cal, including a pair of All-Americans in ILB Evan Weaver and CB Elijah Hicks. Weaver was a consensus first-team pick and earned Pac-12 Defensive Player of the Year in 2019, while Hicks was a third-teamer in 2021. Weaver was also the nation's leading tackler in 2019. Sirmon's son, Jackson, was a fourth-team preseason All-American in 2023 and was named first-team All-Pac-12 by Pro Football Focus despite missing the final seven games due to injury.

Sirmon has coached seven players at Cal who have combined for nine first or second-team All-Pac-12 selections by the league's coaches, including LB Jackson Sirmon (2022 first team), CB Elijah Hicks (2021 first team), CB Camryn Bynum (2020 first team, 2019 second team), OLB Cameron Goode (2020 second team), S Ashtyn Davis (2019 second team), ILB Jordan Kunaszyk (2018 first team) and Weaver (2019 first team, 2018 second team). S Daniel Scott was also a first-team All-Pac-12 pick of Pro Football Focus in 2021 and the second-rated safety in the Pac-12 behind only his teammate, Hicks. In 2023, ILB Cade Uluave was named the Pac-12 Freshman Defensive Player of the Year, while OLB David Reese and DB Craig Woodson were honorable mention All-Pac-12 selections.

Seven of the 11 defensive players Sirmon has coached at Cal since his 2018 arrival that have been on NFL rosters are still currently in the league in Bynum (Minnesota), Davis (New York Jets), Goode (Miami), Hicks (Chicago), S Jaylinn Hawkins (New England), S Patrick McMorris (Miami) and Scott (Indianapolis injured reserve). S Josh Drayden (Washington), DE Zeandae Johnson (Minnesota), ILB Jordan Kunaszyk (Carolina, Cleveland, Washington) and ILB Kuony Deng (Atlanta, Chicago, Pittsburgh) have also previously been on NFL rosters.

On the recruiting front, Sirmon highlighted his three-year tenure as Cal's recruiting coordinator by the signing of a 2021 class that ranked as high as No. 20 nationally according to ESPN, which was Cal's highest-ranked class since the 2011 group checked in at No. 15 nationally by 247Sports. He also helped the program bring in a 2023 spring transfer portal class that was listed by The Athletic as one of its 10 "winners", while also being recognized by On3 (1 of 12 "winners") and 247Sports (No. 17 overall class). He then followed that up with a 2024 transfer portal group that is currently ranked No. 14 by On3 after reaching as high as No. 6.

Sirmon's defenses have always had a knack for taking the ball away and in 2023 led the nation with 16 fumbles recovered and tied for the national lead with 28 turnovers gained, both pacing the Pac-12. Three different Cal defensive players - S Patrick McMorris, LB Cade Uluave and CB Nohl Williams - recovered three fumbles each to rank tied for second in the Pac-12 and tied for 19th nationally. In addition, the Bears' three defensive touchdowns were second in the Pac-12 and tied for 15th nationally, while their 12 interceptions tied for third in the Pac-12 and tied for 36th nationally, and the rushing defense sixth in the Pac-12 and 35th nationally (133.4 ypg). Dating back to the final game of 2020, Cal has at least one takeaway in 35 of its last 38 games and at one point during the 2022 season, the defense had the longest streak of consecutive games in the nation with at least one turnover with 19 in a row.

Prior to his arrival at Cal, Sirmon was the defensive coordinator at Mississippi State (2016) and Louisville (2017) for one season each after previously coaching on staffs with Cal's Travers Family Head Football Coach Justin Wilcox for six seasons at Tennessee (2010-11), Washington (2012-13) and USC (2014-15), including the final three campaigns during that six-year stint as a recruiting coordinator.

Sirmon played seven NFL seasons as a linebacker with the Tennessee Titans from 2000-06, participating in 81 games with 54 starts and registering 343 career tackles while adding four interceptions including one that he returned for a touchdown. Tennessee won two divisional titles (2000 AFC Central, 2002 AFC South) before picking a third playoff appearance during his tenure in 2003. He was a fourth-round pick in the 2000 NFL Draft.

Sirmon, who received his bachelor's degree in political science from Oregon in 1999, was a starter in all four of his collegiate seasons (1996-99) and selected to the Senior Bowl after his 1999 senior campaign. He helped the Ducks to winning campaigns in each of those seasons and three bowl games (1997 Las Vegas Bowl, 1998 Aloha Bowl, 1999 Sun Bowl). A four-year collegiate teammate of Wilcox and a first-team All-Pac-10 selection as a 1999 senior, Sirmon was the Ducks' leading tackler during his sophomore and senior seasons.

Sirmon and his wife, Lindsay, have four children - son Jackson, who played six seasons of college football at Washington (2018-21) and Cal (2022-23) and is now an NFL hopeful who played in the 2023 Senior Bowl; and daughters Austyn, Savanna and Sadie.

VIC SO'OTO

SPECIAL TEAMS COORDINATOR/OUTSIDE LINEBACKERS COACH - 3RD SEASON AT CAL/2ND IN CURRENT ROLE

Vic So'oto is in his third season at Cal and his second campaign as the special teams coordinator and outside linebackers coach in 2024, after serving as the outside linebackers coach in 2022.

So'oto runs a Bears' kickoff return unit that posted an average of 19.83 yards allowed per return – which was Cal's best since 2016 and ranked fifth in the Pac-12 – in his first campaign as Cal's special teams coordinator in 2022, before dropping the yards allowed per kick return to 19.80 in 2023.

So'oto coached an outside linebackers unit that helped the Cal defense become elite at taking away the ball in 2023. They led the nation with 16 fumbles recovered and tied for the national lead with 28 turnovers gained, both pacing the Pac-12. The Bears' three defensive touchdowns were second in the Pac-12 and tied for 15th nationally, their 12 interceptions tied for third in the Pac-12 and tied for 36th nationally and the rushing defense was sixth in the Pac-12 and 35th nationally (133.4 ypg).

So'oto has been instrumental in fostering the growth of 2024 returning starting outside linebackers Xavier Carlton and David Reese. Carlton totaled 84 tackles while combining to register more tackles for loss (12.0, -46 yards) and sacks (9.0, -39 yards) over the last two campaigns than any other Cal player. Reese posted his best collegiate season in 2023 with career highs of 36 tackles, 8.0 tackles for loss (-61 yards), 6.5 sacks (-58 yards), two pass breakups, four quarterback hurries and three forced fumbles (tackles for loss, sacks and forced fumbles also team highs). He earned honorable mention All-Pac-12 recognition, as well as Pac-12 Defensive Lineman of the Week and PFF College Football Defensive Team of the Week honors for his performance in the regular-season finale at UCLA.

So'oto spent the previous two seasons in 2020 and 2021 on the USC coaching staff, where he coached four players now on NFL rosters in Drake Jackson (San Francisco), Mauga (Denver), Jay Tufele (Jacksonville) and Marlon Tuipulotu (Philadelphia).

From 2016-19, So'oto was on staffs at Virginia where he coached a defensive unit that put up numbers among the nation's best in each campaign of his full-time tenure, including his final season in 2019 when the Cavaliers ranked ninth nationally in sacks (3.3) and 22nd in tackles for loss (7.1) on a squad that won the ACC Coastal title and finished 9-4 overall. So'oto began his coaching career in 2016 as a BYU graduate assistant on defense just two years removed from the end of his NFL playing career. There, he coached current NFL player Andrew Brown, a fifth-round NFL Draft pick of Cincinnati in 2018.

In his four-year NFL playing career, So'oto saw action with four different teams and was on rosters of six squads, getting into games with Green Bay (2011-12), Oakland (2012), Washington (2012) and Arizona (2013), while he was also on the rosters of New Orleans (2013) and Pittsburgh (2014) but did not see any game action. He totaled 14 games played, one start, eight tackles and one quarterback hit.

In his collegiate playing career at BYU, he was a four-year letterwinner (2005, '07, '09-10) who started his career as a tight end before moving to defense as a linebacker and defensive end for his final three seasons of six campaigns that also included two redshirt years.

So'oto was a First-Team All-Mountain West selection on a defense as a sixth-year senior in 2010 when he recorded 45 tackles, 11.5 tackles for loss, 5.0 quarterback sacks and one interception.

So'oto received his bachelor's degree in geography from BYU in 2010. He and his wife, Ashley, have two daughters – Fia and Ave – and three sons – Tre, Samson and Mack.

TERRENCE BROWN

DEFENSIVE BACKS COACH - 3RD SEASON AT CAL

Terrence Brown is in his third season as a defensive backs coach at Cal in 2024. Brown, who joined the team's coaching staff on December 23, 2021, shares duties with Tre Watson coaching the Golden Bears' defensive backs.

In 2023, Brown co-coached a unit that helped the Cal defense become elite at taking away the ball. They led the nation with 16 fumbles recovered and tied for the national lead with 28 turnovers gained, both pacing the Pac-12, while the Bears' three defensive touchdowns were second in the Pac-12 and tied for 15th nationally. Their 12 interceptions tied for third in the Pac-12 and tied for 36th nationally, and the rushing defense was sixth in the Pac-12 and 35th nationally (133.4 ypg). Brown instructed Patrick McMorris, who was selected in the sixth round of the 2024 NFL Draft by the Miami Dolphins after posting strong numbers (90 tackles, 4.5 TFL, 1.0 SK, 1 INT, 8 PBU, 2 FR, 2 FF) and Craig Woodson (81 tackles, 3.5 TFL, 1 INT, 4 PBU, 2 FF) who earned his second straight honorable mention All-Pac-12 selection.

Brown made an immediate impact in his first season at Cal in 2022, and along with Watson, tutored a pair of the Pac-12's top safeties in Daniel Scott and Woodson, as well as one of the nation's top freshmen defensive backs in cornerback Jeremiah Earby. Scott was a fifth-round selection of the Indianapolis Colts in the 2023 NFL Draft, and a third-team All-Pac-12 pick of Phil Steele and Pro Football Focus (2022).

Brown started his coaching career as a cornerbacks coach at Cal Poly in the spring of 2015 before transitioning to a role as a defensive graduate assistant at Washington for the 2015 fall season. He spent three seasons in his first of two coaching stints with the Huskies, winning the Pac-12 title and reaching the College Football Playoff in 2016.

Brown then spent two seasons at Vanderbilt with the Commodores reaching the Texas Bowl and equaling their best record in the past eight years during his first campaign in 2018. He tutored second-team All-Southeastern Conference selection Joejuan Williams before he was selected by New England in the second round (No. 45 overall) of the 2019 NFL Draft.

Brown returned to Washington for a two-season run in the second of two coaching stints with the Huskies in 2020. Brown helped the 2020 squad capture the Pac-12 North title and post a 3-1 overall record during a season shortened to four games by COVID-19. He coached a pair of 2021 first-team All-Pac-12 defensive backs in Kyler Gordon and Trent McDuffie, while Elijah Molden was a first-teamer in 2020.

As a collegiate player at Stanford, Brown started all 23 of his games during his final two seasons of a four-year collegiate playing career in which he compiled 113 tackles including a career-high 65 stops when he started a career-high all 14 contests as a 2013 senior.

Brown obtained his bachelor's degree in science, technology and society from Stanford in 2013 and a master's degree in education from Washington in 2017. He and his wife, Courtney, have a son, Ty, and a daughter, Mya.

ANDREW BROWNING

DEFENSIVE LINE COACH - 7TH SEASON AT CAL/6TH IN CURRENT ROLE

Andrew Browning is in his sixth season as the defensive line coach and his seventh campaign overall with the program, having also served in a quality control role on the defensive side of the ball in his first season with the Bears in 2018.

Browning coached a veteran group of defensive linemen in 2023 that included eight players who at end of the 2023 campaign had combined to play in 219 games and make 66 collegiate starts at Cal in Ricky Correia, Jaedon Roberts, Brett Johnson, Ethan Saunders, Burrell, Darius Long Jr., Saole-McKenzie, Derek Wilkins, Akili Calhoun, Curlee Thomas IV and Jeremiah Jeremiah. He helped Johnson earn Comeback Player Of The Year Semifinalist honors in 2023 after Johnson returned from separate season-ending injuries that required him to miss two full campaigns in 2021 and 2022, and eventually medically redshirt following his 2023 comeback season.

Browning was a part of a coaching staff in 2022 whose defense finished tied for fifth in the Pac-12 with 18 turnovers gained and was sixth in the Pac-12 in scoring defense (27.7 ppg). He also helped Cal finish the 2021 season strong on defense by holding four of its last six opponents to 14 points or less before finishing second in the Pac-12 in scoring defense (22.2 ppg), fourth in total defense (366.7 ypg) and in the top half of the league in nearly every category, while the Bears also won four of their final six games.

Browning's first campaign as the defensive line coach at Cal in 2019 was highlighted by the performance of a unit that helped contribute to a significant uptick in sacks, as the Bears were second in the Pac-12 and 21st nationally with an average of 2.77 per game. He helped Cal reach a bowl game and post a winning season for the second-straight campaign to mark the first time the Bears had done both since 2008 and 2009. Browning coached Luc Bequette to the team's 2019 Brick Muller Award as its Most Valuable Lineman with a career-high 52 tackles while adding 4.0 tackles for loss and 3.0 sacks, while Zeandae Johnson finished with career highs of 29 tackles, 5.0 tackles for loss and 3.0 sacks to earn honorable mention All-Pac-12 honors, won the team's Bob Tessier Award as its Most Improved Lineman in his first season as a starter and Most Outstanding Defensive Player honors in the Redbox Bowl.

Browning had a stint at UTEP from 2013-17 in which he tutored future NFL players James Davidson, Horace Miller and Roy Robertson-Harris. Prior to that, Browning started his coaching career with three campaigns on the staff at his alma mater Boise State (2010-12), working in quality control (2010) and as a graduate assistant (2011-12) on the defensive side of the ball. During his three seasons, the Broncos combined for a 35-4 record while winning a share of Western Athletic Conference and Mountain West Conference crowns in 2010 and 2011, picking up bowl victories at the 2010 and 2011 MAACO Bowl, and 2012 Las Vegas Bowl, and ranking in the final AP Top 25 all three seasons including a high of No. 8 in 2011.

As a player at Boise State, he earned first-team All-WAC and second-team Academic All-American honors from ESPN The Magazine as a 2006 senior when he established career highs of 46 tackles, 11.0 tackles for loss and 8.5 sacks for the Broncos' 13-0 Fiesta Bowl championship team that ranked No. 5 in the final AP Top 25.

Browning pursued a playing career in professional football and spent the 2008 season on the roster of the San Jose SaberCats before moving into coaching.

Browning obtained his bachelor's degree in communications from Boise State in 2007. He and his wife, Leah, have a son - Matthew.

STERLIN GILBERT

QUARTERBACKS COACH/PASSING GAME COORDINATOR - 1ST SEASON AT CAL

Sterlin Gilbert in his first season as the passing game coordinator and quarterbacks coach in 2024.

Gilbert has led some of the nation's top offenses during a coaching career that has spanned two decades, including stints over the last nine seasons as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach on the FBS level at Tulsa (2015), Texas (2016), South Florida (2017-18) and Syracuse (2020-21).

In his single season at Texas in 2016, Gilbert was the architect of a run game that featured first-team All-American, Doak Walker Award and Big 12 Offensive Player of the Year Award winner D'Onta Foreman, who led the nation in rushing yards per game (184.4) and was second in total rushing yards (2,028).

Gilbert moved to South Florida the following season and his offense ranked in the top 25 in eight NCAA statistical categories on the way to a 10-2 overall record and a No. 21 ranking in the final AP Top 25. The Bulls broke the school record for total offense (513.0 ypg, No. 6 NCAA) and fewest turnovers (14), among others, while totaling the second-most total yards in school history (6,156).

At Syracuse, his 2021 offense led the ACC and ranked No. 16 nationally in rushing yards per game (213.5) with Sean Tucker ranking fourth in the nation in rushing yards per game (124.7). Tucker's 1,496 total rushing yards broke a 42-year-old single-season school record.

In addition, Gilbert coached NFL quarterback Jimmy Garoppolo for two campaigns as the offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach at Eastern Illinois (2012-13) to highlight his FCS coaching career, was the head coach for one season at McNeese State (2019) and spent the 2023 campaign as a senior analyst with Ole Miss.

In his first 12 campaigns of coaching at the collegiate level, Gilbert's teams have advanced to the postseason eight times.

Before joining the collegiate ranks, Gilbert coached at four different high schools in Texas (2003-04 Springtown; 2006-07 Cooper; 2008-10 Lake View; 2011 Temple) and also spent one season as a graduate assistant for offense on the collegiate level at Houston in 2005, when recently elevated Cal offensive coordinator/offensive line coach Mike Bloesch was a player. The duo also worked together in 2011 at Temple High School and again in 2015 when Bloesch was on Gilbert's offensive staff at Tulsa in quality control with the tight ends position group.

Gilbert graduated from Angelo State in 2002 with a bachelor's degree in kinesiology.

COACHING STAFF

MIKE SAFFELL

TIGHT ENDS COACH - 4TH SEASON AT CAL/1ST IN CURRENT ROLE

Mike Saffell in his first season as the tight ends coach at Cal in 2024.

Saffell, who was a four-year letterwinner as an offensive lineman for the Golden Bears (2017-20), has spent the past three seasons on Cal's football staff as a student coach (2021) and graduate assistant (2022-23) working with the offensive line.

Saffell worked with Mike Bloesch, who was elevated on Dec. 2, 2023, to the Bears' offensive coordinator/offensive line coach, when the Golden Bears averaged 181.1 rushing yards per game over their 12 regular-season contests in 2023 (most since 2012). The team's 2023 ground game was led by first-team All-Pac-12 selection and league rushing leader Jaydn Ott, who was also seventh nationally in rushing yards per game (114.5) and 13th in total rushing yards (1,260). In addition, the Bears made tremendous strides in protecting the quarterback and not allowing negative plays under Bloesch and Saffell in 2023, improving from 10th to fourth in the Pac-12 in sacks allowed (2.58 to 1.50) and 11th to tied for fifth in tackles for loss allowed (6.08 to 5.42) from a year ago.

Saffell played in 28 career games with 23 starts including all 17 Cal contests at center during his 2019 junior and 2020 senior campaigns before announcing his medical retirement from football with one season of eligibility remaining prior to the 2021 campaign. Saffell helped Cal to back-to-back bowl games with the Bears appearing at the Cheez-It Bowl in 2018 before knocking off Illinois at the 2019 Redbox Bowl to finish 8-5 overall. As a 2020 senior, he was named the Pac-12 Football Scholar-Athlete of the Year.

Saffell graduated from Cal's Haas School of Business in 2020 with a bachelor's degree in business administration.

ARISTOTLE THOMPSON

RUNNING BACKS COACH - 5TH SEASON AT CAL

Aristotle Thompson is in his fifth season as the running backs coach at Cal in 2024 after spending the previous 11 campaigns in the same role at Cal Poly.

Thompson has a promising group of running backs in the fold in 2024, led by Heisman Trophy candidate and preseason All-American Jaydn Ott, who is poised to set Cal's all-time records for rushing yards and rushing touchdowns after rushing for 2,212 yards and 20 touchdowns on 416 carries with averages of 5.3 yards per carry and 92.2 yards per game in his first two seasons at Cal in 2022 and 2023. Thompson helped Ott to be the Pac-12's rushing champion in 2023, leading the league and ranking among the nation's best in all-purpose yards per game (135.67, #6 NCAA), rushing yards per game (109.6 ypg, #9 NCAA) and rushing yards (1315, #14 NCAA). Ott also posted five of the Pac-12's top nine games for rushing yards while no one else had more than one, and tied for second in the Pac-12 with 15 total touchdowns (#19T NCAA) and 12 rushing touchdowns (#29T NCAA). In 2023, Thompson coached the running game to an average of 172.8 yards per game in 2023, which was its highest mark since 2012, including four games of 235 or more yards with a 357-yard rushing game in the season-opener at North Texas that was the most by the Golden Bears since rushing for 431 against Washington in 2008.

Even prior to Ott's arrival in 2022, Cal's run game has shown moments of brilliance under the guidance of Thompson, highlighted by a 352-yard rushing game to key a 41-11 blowout at Stanford in 2021 that were the most rushing yards in a game by the Bears since 2008. It was one of four times the Bears rushed for 200 yards or more in 2021 (255, vs. Oregon State; 246 vs. Sacramento State, 213; vs. Colorado). The 2021 Bears also took tremendous care of the football with its 10 turnovers the fewest ever by a Cal team playing a full schedule, including only two lost fumbles to rank tied for second nationally and lead the Pac-12 for fewest fumbles.

During Thompson's time in San Luis Obispo, Cal Poly fielded a strong run game that featured at least one 1000-yard rusher in each of his final nine campaigns and helped the Mustangs put together five consecutive winning seasons from 2010-14. Thompson coached five players that earned FCS All-American honors over seven different seasons during his time at Cal Poly and also had one of his running backs recognized nationally or by the Big Sky for seven consecutive campaigns.

Thompson was a four-year letterwinner as a running back at Boise State (1997-2000), helping the Broncos to their first two Football Bowl Subdivision (FBS) conference championships with Big West titles in 1999 and 2000. Boise State also won the Humanitarian Bowl both seasons with victories over Louisville (1999) and UTEP (2000).

Thompson earned a bachelor's degree in social sciences with an emphasis in criminal justice from Boise State in 2001. He and his wife, Sarah have three sons - Brock, Bryson and Lennon - and two daughters - Akyra and Peyton.

BURL TOLER III

WIDE RECEIVERS/RECRUITING COORDINATOR - 10TH SEASON AT CAL/7TH ON COACHING STAFF/6TH IN CURRENT POSITION

Burl Toler III is in his second stint and 10th season on the coaching or football staff at his alma mater Cal in 2024, as well as his sixth season as a full-time assistant coach and fifth working with the wide receivers. He is also in his third campaign as the team's recruiting coordinator.

Toler will have a largely new group of wide receivers to work with in 2024 as former walk-on Trond Grizzell is the only one of the team's top five wide receivers from 2023 who returns, with Grizzell second on the team last season in receptions (39), yards receiving (590) and touchdown catches (5). Toler coached Jeremiah Hunter to three-year career numbers at Cal, which he recorded in 33 games from 2021-23. Hunter posted 144 receptions, 2,084 yards receiving and 13 touchdown catches, and a single-season career-best of 965 yards receiving as a 2022 sophomore, and then career highs of 63 receptions and seven touchdown catches during his 2023 junior campaign to earn second-team All-Pac-12 honors from Phil Steele and Pro Football Focus as a wide receiver. Toler also guided Mavin Anderson to career highs of 37 receptions, 372 yards receiving and three touchdown catches in his 2022 redshirt freshman campaign, while Monroe Young recorded his top two Cal seasons working under Toler as a 2022 junior and 2023 senior before being invited to the San Francisco 49ers rookie mini-camp in the spring of 2024.

Prior to that, Toler coached Nikko Remigio (59-665, 5 TD) and Kekoa Crawford (55-794, 5 TD) who combined for 114 catches, 1459 yards receiving and 10 touchdown grabs over their Cal careers. Remigio is now a wide receiver for the Kansas City Chiefs. During Toler's one season as the Bears' running backs coach in 2018 he tutored Patrick Laird, who finished his Cal career with 2153 yards rushing and 14 touchdowns on the ground before going on to play three seasons in the NFL for Miami from 2019-21. Laird caught more passes in his Cal career than any running back in school history with 99 receptions for 608 yards with five touchdowns.

Toler spent the 2017 season as the wide receivers coach at UC Davis and the season prior to that at Fresno State in the same position. Toler filled several different roles during his first three seasons on the Cal football staff from 2013-15 as the special teams quality control assistant all three seasons, while also working with the wide receivers in 2014 and the running backs in 2015.

Toler started his playing days with the Bears as a walk-on and was Cal's second-leading receiver as a 2003 junior, with 48 catches for 609 yards receiving to go along with three scoring grabs. He completed his junior campaign by hauling in a team-high six passes for 84 yards in a 52-49 victory over Virginia Tech in the Insight Bowl. Toler graduated from Cal in 2005 with a bachelor's degree in social welfare and a concentration in sociology.

Following his collegiate playing career, he spent time as a player in the NFL on the rosters of the Oakland Raiders (2006) and the Washington Redskins (2007-08). He also played in NFL Europe (Cologne), the Italian Football League (Bologna), the Canadian Football League (Hamilton) and Arena Football League (Orlando, San Antonio, San Jose) before retiring as a player in 2013.

Toler and his wife, Drea, are the parents of daughters, Lale and Lana, and son, Burl IV.

TRE WATSON

DEFENSIVE BACKS - 4TH SEASON AT CAL

Tre Watson is in his fourth season as the defensive backs coach at Cal in 2024 and shares the duties with Terrence Brown.

In 2023, Watson co-coached a unit that helped the Cal defense become elite at taking away the ball. They led the nation with 16 fumbles recovered and tied for the national lead with 28 turnovers gained, both pacing the Pac-12, while the Bears' three defensive touchdowns were second in the Pac-12 and tied for 15th nationally. Their 12 interceptions tied for third in the Pac-12 and tied for 36th nationally, and the rushing defense was sixth in the Pac-12 and 35th nationally (133.4 ypg). Watson instructed Patrick McMorris, who was selected in the sixth round of the 2024 NFL Draft by the Miami Dolphins after posting strong numbers (90 tackles, 4.5 TFL, 1.0 SK, 1 INT, 8 PBU, 2 FR, 2 FF) and Craig Woodson (81 tackles, 3.5 TFL, 1 INT, 4 PBU, 2 FF) who earned his second straight honorable mention All-Pac-12 selection.

In 2022, along with Brown, Watson tutored a pair of the Pac-12's top safeties in Daniel Scott and Woodson, as well as one of the nation's top freshmen defensive backs in cornerback Jeremiah Early. Scott was a fifth-round selection of the Indianapolis Colts in the 2023 NFL Draft, and a third-team All-Pac-12 pick of Phil Steele and Pro Football Focus in 2022.

In his first season at Cal in 2021, Watson coached third-team All-American Elijah Hicks who was also a first-team All-Pac-12 defensive back of the league's coaches and the winner of the Pop Warner College Football Award. He also coached sixth-year senior Josh Drayden in the final 12 games of his career on his way to a school-record 55 career games played. Hicks was selected in seventh round (No. 254 overall) of the 2022 NFL Draft by the Bears and Drayden is on the Washington roster.

Watson was hired for his first full-time collegiate coaching position as the defensive backs coach in 2020 after working on the same staff as first-year UNLV head coach Marcus Arroyo in 2018 and 2019 at Oregon. He coached Seattle Seahawks and Miami Dolphins safeties Ugo Amadi and Jevon Holland, as well as 2019 Freshman All-American Verone McKinley III at Oregon.

Watson finished his collegiate playing career with two seasons at Washington in 2012 and 2013, earning a scholarship prior to his 2012 redshirt junior campaign and playing in all 26 games possible after originally joining the Huskies as a walk-on transfer from Central Washington. He obtained a bachelor's degree in communications.

In between his time as a collegiate player and his coaching career, Watson spent three years in Seattle from 2014-16 training NFL players as well as former college players for the NFL Combine. He worked primarily with Seattle Seahawks and former Washington players including Budda Baker, DeShawn Shead, Shaq Thompson, Bobby Wagner and K.J. Wright.

Watson and his wife, Taryn, have a son named TJ.

BRIAN JOHNSON

HEAD FOOTBALL ATHLETIC PERFORMANCE COACH - 4TH SEASON AT CAL

Brian Johnson is in his fourth campaign as the Golden Bears' head football athletic performance coach in 2024 after spending the previous 11 seasons on strength and conditioning staffs at FBS schools and in the NFL. Johnson started his professional working career as an assistant strength and conditioning coach at Florida State (2010-11) before being hired as the head strength and conditioning coach at Akron at the age of 27. He spent the offseason prior to the 2012 campaign at Akron before his alma mater LSU came calling. For the next three seasons (2012-14), he was assistant strength and conditioning coordinator with the Tigers (2012-14) then held similar roles with the San Francisco 49ers (2015-16) and at Texas A&M (2017).

Johnson was a member of bowl staffs and winning teams in each of his first six collegiate seasons as a coach, starting with both campaigns at Florida State, all three at LSU and his lone season at Texas A&M, with three of his first four teams (2010, '11, '13) each winning 10 contests.

Johnson has coached 79 players that have been selected in the NFL Draft during his 11 collegiate seasons, including 11 first-rounders highlighted by six in 2013. The complete list including Florida State's Christian Ponder (2011), Eli Manuel (2013), Xavier Rhodes (2013) and Björn Werner (2013), as well as LSU's Barkevious Mingo (2013), Eric Reid (2013), Odell Beckham Jr. (2013), Kelvin Benjamin (2014), Leonard Fournette (2017), Jamal Adams (2017) and Tre'Davious White (2017).

Johnson is a certified strength and conditioning specialist through the National Strength and Conditioning Association (NSCA). He is also certified in Functional Range Conditioning, holds a USA Weightlifting Level 1 Coaching Certification and is a certified Corrective Exercise Specialist (CES) through the National Academy of Sports Medicine.

The former collegiate offensive lineman played in 44 games with 28 starts during five seasons at LSU from 2002-06 with his teams combining for a 54-13 overall record, one national championship (2003), one SEC title (2003), two SEC Championship Games (2003, '05), three bowl victories (2003 Sugar Bowl, 2005 Peach Bowl, 2006 Sugar Bowl), and bowl appearances in each of his five campaigns. He earned second-team All-SEC honors as a fifth-year senior in 2006.

Johnson and his wife, Angela, have one son - Deacon - and one daughter - Chandler.

ANDREW MCGRAW

FOOTBALL CHIEF OF STAFF - 28TH SEASON AT CAL/7TH IN CURRENT POSITION

Andrew McGraw is in his 28th season at Cal in 2024, and his sixth as Football Chief of Staff after most recently serving as Assistant Athletic Director, Director of Football Operations.

In McGraw's current role, he assists Travers Family Head Football Coach Justin Wilcox with overseeing the daily operation of the football program. He is responsible for the football operating budget, team travel, summer camps and scheduling. Additionally, he supervises various support staff units within the football department and serves as staff liaison for sports medicine, compliance, housing and athletic communications.

Prior to moving into operations, McGraw was the program's Director of Player Personnel and helped the Golden Bears sign some of their most highly-ranked recruiting classes in program history, including three consecutive groups from 2010-12 that ranked as high as No. 11, No. 13 and No. 15 nationally. During his time overseeing the recruiting department, Cal produced a number of players who went on to enjoy prolific NFL careers (Aaron Rodgers, Marshawn Lynch, Jared Goff, DeSean Jackson, C.J. Anderson, Alex Mack, Tyson Alualu, Cameron Jordan and Nnamdi Asomugha - to name a few). Under McGraw's leadership, the recruiting department helped Cal rank in the top 10 nationally and second in the Pac-12 for most players active in the NFL for multiple seasons.

McGraw started his tenure at Cal in 1996 as a recruiting assistant under then head coach Steve Mariucci. He spent the following two seasons as a defensive quality control coach before moving into his role as Director of Player Personnel.

McGraw received his bachelor's degree in geography from Cal in 1995. He and his wife, Stephanie, have two children - son, Zach, and daughter, Ella.

CAL FOOTBALL IN THE COMMUNITY

INCARCERATION TO COLLEGE

Cal's defensive backs group, led by Lu-Magia Hearn II, participated in the Incarceration to College volunteer program this past summer. The program, which is run by the Berkeley Underground Scholars (BUS), creates pathways for incarcerated, formerly incarcerated and system-impacted individuals into higher education.

As volunteers, Cal football players visited the San Leandro Juvenile Justice Center. They served as a positive presence of the college-going culture as relatable student-athlete role models. They shared their experiences in college and made authentic connections with the youth by listening to their individual journeys.

GOLDEN BUDDIES

Cal football student-athletes Myles Williams, Jack Endries and Fernando Mendoza, in collaboration with the Cameron Institute and Special Olympics of Northern California, hosted the second-annual Golden Buddies Football Clinic at California Memorial Stadium on May 1, 2024.

The free football clinic was an all-day event, which allowed students ages 6-13 with and without intellectual disabilities to participate together in football drills. Williams, Endries and Mendoza, along with 33 other members of the Cal football team, ran the drills while aiming to encourage and empower the young students. At the clinic, participants were split into small groups that traveled to different stations around the field. Stations included learning how to throw a football on a target, running receiver routes, practicing their tackling, footwork drills for running backs and more.

SUMMER READING CHALLENGE

Cal Football's Annual Summer Reading Challenge, first piloted by former Bear Patrick Laird in 2018, was spearheaded by Jaydn Ott and Jack Endries this past year. The program aims to help fight summer learning loss for students in the Bay Area by encouraging students to practice their reading skills outside of the classroom. During the past school year, Cal football players visited local schools to get kids excited about the program and share the importance reading has had on their personal lives.

Dozens of elementary school students signed up for the challenge, which began at the start of the summer and ends in September. First through fifth graders were challenged to read three books while sixth through eighth graders were encouraged to log five books. Every student that completed the challenge was eligible for two free tickets to Cal's home opener against UC Davis on August 31.

ACC A NEW ERA

As of August 2, 2024, UC Berkeley joined the Atlantic Coast Conference as one of 18 member schools. The decision came against the backdrop of significant conference realignment across the country in recent years and was made after an extensive exploration of options and in the wake of hard work and diligent negotiations. Throughout the process, campus leadership prioritized the needs of its student-athletes and what would be required to secure Cal Athletics' long-term stability, while preserving the program's stature and the essential role it plays on the Berkeley campus.

Longtime Pac-12 rival and Bay Area neighbor Stanford University has also joined the ACC, as did Southern Methodist University.

UC Berkeley values the ACC's extensive championship culture. The conference sponsors competition at the highest level in 28 sports; Cal Athletics has teams in 24 of them. Cal has won 103 national championships in its history, while no conference has won more NCAA championships over the last two years than the ACC.

"We made this decision in the best interests of our student-athletes, the university and our extended Cal community of alumni and supporters," said former UC Berkeley Chancellor Christ, who was at the helm at the time Cal announced its new conference membership. "We look forward to cheering on the Golden Bears in their new conference home, just as we look forward to many more years of competing for The Stanford Axe."

UC Berkeley, which is consistently ranked as one of the top universities in the world, is joining a conference that features schools with excellent academic reputations. The most recent U.S. News & World Report rankings of "Best Colleges" recognized the ACC as the leader among Power 5 conferences for the 16th consecutive year. With the addition of Cal and Stanford, the ACC now features nine institutions that are members of the prestigious Association of American Universities.

"We are excited that our student-athletes will continue to have the opportunity to compete against like-minded schools that prioritize academics and athletics," Cal Athletic Director Jim Knowlton said. "When you look at the quality of the institutions in the ACC, this is an incredible fit. Our student-athletes will continue to compete at the highest level, while getting a degree from one of the world's best universities."

HALL OF FAME

Eight California standouts have been elected for induction into the Cal Athletics Hall of Fame.

As part of Cal Athletics' enhanced Hall of Fame process, formal induction for the Class of 2024 will take place at the next Hall of Fame Gala, scheduled for the fall of 2025. The classes of 2024 and 2025 will be inducted together at the celebratory event as well as during a home football game.

THE CLASS OF 2024 CONSISTS OF:

- Scott Frandsen (men's rowing, 1999-2002) – current Cal head coach won three national championships as a student-athlete and is a three-time Olympian for Canada
- Tarik Glenn (football, 1993-96) – a first-team All-Pac-10 selection as a senior who played on both sides of the line at Cal before becoming a three-time Pro Bowler and winning a Super Bowl with the Indianapolis Colts
- Alexis Gray-Lawson (women's basketball, 2005-10) – All-American and three-time All-Pac-10 selection was the third Cal women's basketball player ever selected in the WNBA Draft
- Jorge Gutierrez (men's basketball, 2008-12) – All-American and Pac-12 Player of the Year helped lead Cal to the conference championship in 2010
- Pia Halbig (women's golf, 2008-11) – Two-time All-American has the lowest career scoring average in program history
- Caitlin Leverenz Smith (women's swimming & diving, 2009-13) – National Swimmer of the Year won a bronze medal at the 2012 Summer Olympics
- Mike MacDonald (rugby, 1999-2004) – Five-time All-American and four-time national champion went on to decorated international career
- Nancy McDaniel (women's golf, 1995-2024) – Founded Cal's women's golf program and was the Bears' first head coach for 29 years

With the addition of the new members, the Cal Athletics Hall of Fame now features 347 individuals and seven rowing teams. The school's Hall of Fame, which is located on the west side of California Memorial Stadium, is open to all ticket holders after each home football game.

2023-24 SEASON RECAPS

BASEBALL

The Golden Bears proved to be one of the West Coast's most exciting baseball teams in 2024, as they won 36 total games and went 17-13 in their final season as members of the Pac-12 Conference. Both win totals were highs under the direction of seventh-year head coach Mike Neu, who guided his 2024 squad to a 22-7 home record – including a three-game sweep of No. 5 Oregon State – and eight walk-off victories. Despite notching 36 total wins and winning 20 of their final 25 contests, the Bears were narrowly left out of the NCAA postseason picture. Four Bears were selected in the MLB Draft following the conclusion of the season, highlighted by junior catcher Caleb Lomavita – the 39th overall pick – and junior outfielder Rodney Brown Jr., who was taken in the fourth round. Freshman PJ Moutzouridis, one of half of Cal's dynamic rookie middle infield alongside Jarren Advincula, earned All-America honors alongside Lomavita. Cal's lineup blasted 81 total home runs throughout the year while its pitching staff posted a 4.84 earned-run average, which ranked among the top 50 teams nationally.

MEN'S BASKETBALL

Mark Madsen reinvigorated the Cal men's basketball program in his first season as head coach, leading the Golden Bears to a 10-win improvement from the 2022-23 season. Cal had its best finish in the Pac-12 Conference standings since 2016-17 with a tie for sixth place and earned nine regular-season conference wins – each against a different opponent, including marquee victories against NCAA Tournament squads Colorado, Oregon and Washington State, as well as their first road win at UCLA since 2010. Madsen was awarded a two-year contract extension as a result, keeping him in Berkeley until 2030. A slew of new faces dotted the roster and provided immediate impacts on the court, headlined by junior forward Jaylon Tyson, who was selected by the Cleveland Cavaliers with the 20th overall pick in the first round of the NBA Draft in June. Tyson – Cal's first NBA Draft selection since 2017 – was an All-Pac-12 First Team pick in his lone season as a Golden Bear. Cal won 10 home games, including six of its final eight, and had its first sold-out crowd since 2017 when 11,801 were on hand for an 83-77 overtime win against USC on Feb. 7.

WOMEN'S BASKETBALL

The Cal women's basketball team had its most successful campaign since the 2018-19 season and best year under head coach Charmin Smith having won its most overall (19) and conference games (7). The team set a program record for most 3-pointers in a season (289) and played in the postseason for the first time since 2018-19 as the Bears earned an at-large bid and a No. 2 seed in this year's inaugural NCAA Women's Basketball Invitation Tournament. Under Smith's guidance in 2023-24, the team also had its first weekend home and road sweeps of Pac-12 schools (both against Washington and Washington State) since 2018-19, swept Oregon for the first time since 2012-13. The season sweeps of Oregon, Washington and Washington State mark the first time Cal has swept three different Pac-12 schools since 2017-18. The Bears also advanced to the quarterfinals of this year's Pac-12 Tournament for the first time since 2019-20. Smith was named ESPN's Coach of the Week on Jan. 8. The program also welcomed in the No. 22-ranked recruiting class that features two ESPN HoopGurlz Top 100 players in Kamryn Mafua (54) and Zahra King (76) along with recently named Gatorade and MaxPreps Hawaii State Player of the Year Lola Donez.

BEACH VOLLEYBALL

In its 11th season the Cal beach volleyball team established itself as one of the premier programs in the NCAA's youngest and fastest growing sport. The Bears were selected to the NCAA Championship for a third straight season and for the second year in a row won their opening round matchup over Long Beach State. Cal saw its third most wins in program history with a 22-14 record and 11 ranked wins to tie its highest finish at 7th. Senior Sierra Caffo and junior Alex Young-Gomez led the way on court one picking up 14 wins and 13 wins, respectively. Both Bears were named AVCA All-Americans and All-Pac-12 honorees. While the veteran leadership on this team was evident, Cal also got help from one of its newcomers – freshman Emma Donley. Donley had a 20-13 record playing primarily on the top two courts and was named to the All-Pac-12 second team and All-Freshman team. In July head coach Meagan Owusu, a pioneer of the Cal program, signed an extension through 2027. Owusu is the program's all-time wins leader with a record of 153-78 (.662) who has set a new standard for the program over the last few seasons.

MEN'S CROSS COUNTRY

The California men's cross country team posted its best finish since 2011 at the 2023 Pac-12 Championships, taking fifth place overall as a team, which was a four-place jump from the previous year's conference championships and the best finish of the Lockhart era. Garrett MacQuiddy and Carrick Denker paced the men's squad in the 8,000-meter race, notching personal best times to take 13th and 14th place, respectively, and earn their first All-Pac-12 Second Team recognitions. MacQuiddy's 13th place finish was also the best finish for a Bear since 2017. In their season finale at the NCAA West Regionals, the Golden Bear men placed 12th – a nine-place improvement from the previous year's competition. Caden Carney raced his first-ever 10,000-meter course and clinched 40th-place overall, while John Sestea broke his 10,000-meter record by nearly a full minute to claim Cal's second scoring position. A squad focused on continuous improvement, every student-athlete that competed in 2023 broke their personal record at some point during the season, with Denker setting a new best-mark in the 8,000-meter loop in the last three consecutive races.

WOMEN'S CROSS COUNTRY

The California women's cross country team saw a two-place improvement from their last outing at the Pac-12 championships, taking eighth place overall at the 2023 conference championships to make the team's best finish since 2020. Freshman standout Amelia Wardle-Stacey burst onto the scene in her debut season and was the top Cal finisher in four out of the Golden Bears' five meets. She notched 38th-place overall in the 6,000-meter race at the 2023 NCAA West Regionals and 36th-place at the conference championships in her first collegiate postseason competitions. Senior Claire Yerby was in lock step with Wardle-Stacey finishing as one of Cal's top scorers at every meet. Yerby's best outing of the season took place at the Bronco Invitational when she broke her personal record by over 40 seconds to set her new best mark at 20:09.5. Sophomore Georgia McCorkle also made an impact as one of the squad's top scorers in the majority of Cal's meets, setting her personal-best in the 6,000-meter loop at the conference championships.

2023-24 SEASON RECAPS

FIELD HOCKEY

The Cal field hockey team won its first America East Conference Tournament title in its final year as a member of the league and advanced to the NCAA Tournament for the first time since 2006. The Golden Bears finished the 2023 campaign at 12-8 overall, but reeled off eight consecutive wins – five regular-season contests and three games at the America East tourney – from Oct. 8 through Nov. 5. Cal overcame the top two seeds in the conference tournament with 3-2 overtime victories against UMass Lowell and UAlbany to clinch the title. Graduate transfers Daniella Rhodes and Bente Baekers proved to be immediate difference makers for the Bears as they amassed 36 combined goals and earned All-America East honors. Rhodes, who scored four goals and recorded an assist during Cal's conference tournament run, was named the America East Tournament Most Valuable Player. Kiki de Bruijne joined Rhodes and Baekers as NFHCA All-Region honorees.

FOOTBALL

Cal won its final three games of the regular season to reach bowl eligibility and 2024 Heisman Trophy candidate Jaydn Ott led the Pac-12 in rushing by posting one of most productive seasons in school history to highlight the 2023 campaign. The late-season run was capped by road victories over in-state rivals Stanford and UCLA with the Big Game win the Golden Bears' third straight on The Farm and fourth overall against the Cardinal in the last five campaigns. Ott, who earned honorable mention All-American and first-team All-Pac-12 honors after rushing for 1,315 yards and 12 touchdowns, will enter the 2024 campaign with the second-highest rushing yards per game average among FBS running backs (92.2) and 2,212 career rushing yards with his eyes set on Cal's all-time record-holder Russell White (3,367). Ott is one of six players awarded 2023 season honors by the Pac-12 who return in 2024 along with Fernando Mendoza, David Reese, Pac-12 Freshman Defensive Player of the Year Cade Uluave, Lachlan Wilson and Craig Woodson. The Bears ratcheted up the excitement for 2024 in the offseason by bringing in 55 new players including 54 scholarship transfers to give the Bears a transfer portal class that ranks No. 14 according to On3.

MEN'S GOLF

Cal men's golf returned to the NCAA Championships for the 16th time in program history and the first time since 2019 and placed 19th at the event, capping an impressive 2023-24 season. The Golden Bears tallied eight top-three finishes – including two tournament wins and four runner-up finishes – in 13 stroke-play events. The pair of wins came back-to-back in October at the Alister MacKenzie Invitational and the Cal Poly Invitational, and two of the runner-up efforts came in postseason play at the Pac-12 Championship and NCAA Rancho Santa Fe Regional. Sampson Zheng – one of five Cal seniors to graduate at the conclusion of the spring semester – anchored Cal's lineup throughout the year on the way to earning GCAA All-America and All-Pac-12 First Team selections for the second consecutive year. Zheng reeled off five straight individual top-10 finishes from March 5-May 15, including a runner-up effort at the NCAA Rancho Santa Fe Regional. The Bears' lineup was further bolstered by standout freshmen Ethan Fang – an All-Pac-12 Second Team pick – and Eric Lee, an All-Pac-12 honorable mention, as well as junior Tony Chen, who won his first collegiate individual tournament title at the Cal Poly Invitational in October.

WOMEN'S GOLF

In what would end up being the final year of head coach Nancy McDaniel's career – ending a 29-season run dating back to the program's very first season – the California women's golf team battled through adversity from the jump to put forth one of their most memorable seasons in recent memory. Led by sophomore Adora Liu (72.4) and freshman Constance Fouillet (72.7), who finished with the Bears' two lowest scoring averages all-time, Cal enjoyed its longest win streak in program history (3) and earned its most top-five finishes in the last eight years (5). As a team, the Bears also finished with their scoring average (291.1) ever and set all-time marks through 18 holes (-17), 36 holes (-19) and 54 holes (-28). A month after announcing her retirement in April, McDaniel received the Kim Moore Spirit Award for the second time. Following the Bears' 23rd run to NCAA Regionals since 2000, associate head coach Bev Terry became the program's first-ever winner of the WCGA Assistant Coach of the Year award.

MEN'S GYMNASTICS

California men's gymnastics posted its most outstanding season to date under head coach JT Okada, finishing seventh at the NCAA Championships with its best score at that meet (407.158) in modern program history to send 10 individual gymnasts to the final. MPSF silver medalist Aidan Li, fresh off his school record on pommel horse in the qualifying round, scored well enough to tie for seventh place and earn his first-career All-America nod – the Golden Bears' first since 2021 and the first by a Cal pommel horse specialist since 2014. Jasper Smith-Gordon, the nation's No. 6 vaulter who also earned silver in the event at the MPSF Championships, earned his second-straight CGA Regular-Season All-America honor, while three different freshmen – Carter Kim, Brendan Strom and Jaxon Mitchell – earned MPSF Freshman of the Week recognition during the season. Darren Wong was also honored with the CalHope Courage Award for overcoming three-straight season-ending injuries to return for his final year at Cal. As a team, the Bears posted modern program records on pommel horse, rings and parallel bars, while individuals recorded eight program top-10 scores.

WOMEN'S GYMNASTICS

The Bears saw their highest finish in program history in 2024 – national runner-up. After placing first in each round of the Haas Pavilion Regional, Cal reached its second straight NCAA Championship and made its first Four on the Floor appearance. The last season in the Pac-12 was a memorable one with the Bears winning its first outright conference championship. For the second straight season Cal recorded the top three team scores in program history including a record 198.550. The Bears also had five of the top-10 team scores and broke the vault record with a 49.525. Cal set national records in 2024 as well with four Bears making the top-25 NCAA all-time single season scoring list. eMjæe Frazier (673.0625) scored the most points in the history of the sport this year followed by Maddie Williams (3rd, 669.8125), Mya Lauzon (14th, 633.8250), and Ella Cesario (23rd, 629.8375). A season of this caliber of course came with a healthy bounty of individual accomplishments as well with the Bears tallying 19 All-America honors and 14 All-Pac-12 honors. Co-head coaches Elisabeth Crandall-Howell and Justin Howell were named WCGA West Region Coaches of the Year and Frazier took home West Region Gymnast of the Year honors.

LACROSSE

Cal stayed in contention for a spot in the Pac-12 Tournament until dropping its season finale at conference champion and No. 19 Stanford. The Bears won five games for the second consecutive campaign but did so in two fewer contests than the season before during a year highlighted by a three-game win streak that was their longest since 2019. Defense was a key ingredient especially early in the season as the Bears allowed a total of only 18 goals during the win streak and 10 or fewer eight times in its first 11 contests. Goalkeeper Callan Fritsch, a fifth-year senior transfer from Drexel, played a major role in the Bears' defensive prowess, finishing second in the Pac-12 and 24th nationally with a .424 save percentage. The Bears spread the wealth offensively with Mya Wang (31 points) leading four players within four points of the team lead followed by Kennedy Goss (28), Josie Lillquist (28) and Kennedy Mason (27). Goss, who finished her career as Cal's all-time leader with 280 draw controls, was the team's top awards winner as a second-team All-Pac-12 selection and recipient of Cal's prestigious Anna Espenchied Award that gave her a seat on stage at her graduation.

MEN'S ROWING

The Cal men's rowing team entered the 2023-24 campaign as the defending back-to-back national champions but with several top returners taking the year off to train for the Olympics and was still able to come away with a third-place finish at the IRA national championships as both the V8+ and 3V8+ finished third in their respective grand final races. The third place finish marked the program's 40th top-three overall finish in program history. The Golden Bears ranked as high as No. 2 in the country during the season and finished ranked fourth nationally. Cal placed five rowers (Noah Anger, Alex Baroni, Harry Manton, Wilson Morton and Luca Vieira) on the IRCA All-American Team - tied for the most of any program in the country. Tommy Barrell collected a number of academic awards including IRCA and Pac-12 Scholar Athlete of the Year along with the 2024 Neufeld Scholar-Athlete Award, which goes to the graduating male and female senior with the highest grade-point average of all Cal student-athletes.

WOMEN'S ROWING

The Cal women's rowing team had a successful 2023-24 season in which it ranked as high as No. 4 in the nation. The team finished second at the Pac-12 Championships - its highest since 2018, before coming in ninth at the NCAA Championships. During the season, the Bears' V8+, 2V8+, 3V8+, 4V8+ and V4+ swept then-No. 7 Washington to reclaim the Simpson Cup for the first time since 2019. Cal also made a cross-country trip to Virginia for the ACC/Pac-12 Invite where its V8+, 2V8+, V4+ and 2V4+ swept No. 8 Syracuse, No. 11 Virginia and No. 18 Oregon State. At the end of the regular season, the Bears placed three rowers (Antonia Galland, Julia Hunt and Fien van Westreenen) on the All-Pac-12 Team for the first time since 2019.

RUGBY

California men's rugby went 11-4 in the spring 2024 XV's season, headlined by its dominant 47-24 home win over then-reigning champion Navy. The Golden Bears went 6-0 to start the season, including a notable 66-12 road win against UCLA. Cal's winning streak was snapped by a 53-26 loss to BYU, but the Bears bounced back with three-straight road wins against Arizona (85-10), Grand Canyon (74-7) and Utah (69-22). The Bears continued a road swing to make their first trip to Army West Point since 2016 where they fell 27-14 in a muddy battle on the East Coast. Cal handled Navy two weeks later to split its matches with the U.S. service academies before taking a close 38-31 loss to Saint Mary's to close out the regular season. The Bears hosted Cal Poly for the first round of the D1A National Collegiate Championships, storming past the Mustangs 70-13, before falling to the Gaels in the Quarterfinals 34-16. Ten Bears earned All-America recognitions and sophomore Cade Crist was a nominee for the Rudy Scholz Award for men's best collegiate player of the year. 2023-24 was Associate Head Coach Tom Billups' milestone 25th year with the Bears.

MEN'S SOCCER

The second season under head coach Leonard Griffin resulted in Cal more than doubling its win total from 2022 with seven in 2023, with Griffin earning the Pac-12 Coach of the Year award and Wyatt Meyer claiming the Pac-12 Defensive Player of the Year accolade. Cal placed five Golden Bears on All-Pac-12 Teams, with Meyer, defender Kevin Carmichael and midfielder Evan Davila - who led the Bears in goals (5), assists (5) and points (15) - garnering conference first-team status. Forward Nonso Adimabua (1 goal, 3 assists) was named to the All-Pac-12 Second Team and goalkeeper Connor Lambe (1.06 GAA) earned honorable mention. Additionally, Davila (first team), Meyer (second team) and Adimabua (third team) were named to the United Soccer Coaches All-Far West Region Teams. Cal also earned laurels for its work in the classroom - Meyer was named a Collegiate Sports Communicators Academic All-American, Meyer and defender Santiago Hopkins were named to the CSC Academic All-District Team, and nine Bears were named to the Pac-12 Fall Academic Honor Roll. In December, Nashville FC selected Meyer (first round) and Carmichael (second round) in the MLS SuperDraft, with both Bears returning to Cal for one more season before joining the professional club.

WOMEN'S SOCCER

For the third straight year the Cal women's soccer team finished with a winning record going 7-6-6 with 5-1-4 record at home at Edwards Stadium. The Golden Bears' final Pac-12 season saw them finish tied for fifth place at 4-3-4 thanks to an eight-match unbeaten streak to start conference play. Over those eight games Cal held a 17-4 goal differential. Offense was truly a team effort with the Bears' 29 goals coming off of 13 different boots. Ari Manrique and Karlie Lema led the team with five and four, respectively. Additionally, 10 Bears account for the team's 19 assists, giving Cal 16 total point scorers. On the individual side Cal had three All-Pac-12 selections with goalkeeper Teagan Wy and forwards Lema and Mia Fontana all being named to the third team. Wy finished the season ranked second in the conference with 86 total saves and ranked fourth in both save percentage (.796) and saves per game (4.53). She led the team to six shutouts starting in every match.

2023-24 SEASON RECAPS

SOFTBALL

The California softball team continued its resurgence on the national stage with a consensus Top-25 campaign along with a second straight appearance in an NCAA Regional. The Golden Bears were led by fifth-year senior Tatum Anzaldo who recorded her third consecutive First Team All-Pac-12 honor, the first Cal player to achieve that recognition since Jolene Henderson in 2011-13. The Bears' offense sat near the top of the conference in several statistical categories, topped by the long ball. Cal's 79 home runs paced the Pac-12 and were 12th in the NCAA. Sophomore Elon Butler and freshman Lagi Quiroga tied for the conference regular season home run crown with 16 apiece. Acacia Anders set a new program single-season record with 19 doubles and the Bears broke the team record for doubles in a season (81, 2023) with 86 on the year. Anzaldo finished with the fifth-best career batting average in program history (.369) and collected her 200th career hit on April 17 at Fresno State. Anzaldo also put her name into the Cal record books with her third consecutive NFCA All-Region honor, while Butler earned her first career All-American nod after hitting 17 home runs (4th single season at Cal) to go along with a .760 slugging percentage, 44 RBI, 12 doubles and a .351 batting average.

MEN'S SWIMMING & DIVING

The Golden Bears extended their run of top-two finishes at the NCAA Men's Swimming & Diving Championships to 14 consecutive years in 2023-24, capping yet another standout collegiate season with a runner-up effort in Indianapolis. Cal's showing at NCAAs was highlighted by four national titles – three individual and one relay – as well as points scored in diving events, a first in head coach David Durden's 17-year Golden Bear tenure. Destin Lasco set American and NCAA records en route to his third straight title in the 200-yard backstroke and was also crowned the 200-yard individual medley champion, while Liam Bell additionally broke American and NCAA records in winning the 100-yard breaststroke. Gabriel Jett, Lasco, Jack Alexy and Robin Hanson captured the 800-yard freestyle relay title, giving Cal its first NCAA crown in the event since 1986. A little more than one month prior to NCAAs, Cal and eventual national champion Arizona State clashed in an instant classic of a dual meet at Spieker Aquatics Complex, ending in a 150-150 tie with 13 total pool records rewritten. Cal sent 13 swimmers – including active collegiate swimmers Jack Alexy, Nikolas Antoniou, Robin Hanson, Keaton Jones, Ziyad Saleem and Björn Seeliger – to the 2024 Summer Olympics in Paris, while Durden served as an assistant coach for Team USA.

WOMEN'S SWIMMING & DIVING

Cal's 2023-24 women's swimming & diving campaign was highlighted by winning the sixth Pac-12 Conference Championship team title in program history and an 11th-place finish at the NCAA Championships in Athens, Georgia. The Golden Bears sent 15 swimmers to NCAAs – the second most in the country – highlighted by senior Isabelle Stadden, who was named the Pac-12 Swimmer of the Year after winning three conference titles and was the national runner-up in the 100-yard backstroke. The Bears won seven of eight dual meets throughout the season, including a Senior Day victory over Stanford that saw four pool records shattered. The program was later represented by eight Golden Bears, including current swimmer Leah Polonsky, at the 2024 Summer Olympics in Paris, while head coach David Durden served as an assistant coach for Team USA.

MEN'S TENNIS

Carl Emil Overbeck claimed All-Pac-12 First-Team status and captured the singles title at the Jack Kramer Invitational as the Cal men's tennis team finished its second season under Kris Kwint, the Peter Wright Director of Men's Tennis. Joining the Dane on the conference teams were Alex Chang (second team) and Timofey Stepanov (honorable mention). Chang – a two-time Pac-12 Player of the Week – tied Stepanov in singles victories with 20 each and Overbeck tied for third with 17. Chang – who paired with Mikey Wright to earn a final ITA doubles ranking of 75th – also posted 20 wins to lead the Bears in doubles, while Overbeck (114th) and Ryder Jackson (120) earned final singles rankings and Kwint's squad collected a No. 62 team ranking to end the 2023-24 season. Jackson and Lucas Magnaudet – who led the Bears with four clinching wins – completed their Cal careers in a Pac-12 Championship quarterfinal loss to Arizona State, as the Bears posted a 10-10 dual-match record. Additionally, Cal excelled in the classroom, earning the Big C Society Most Improved Team GPA Award, while Chang picked up the Golden Bear Achievement Award with the team's best individual GPA.

WOMEN'S TENNIS

The Cal women's tennis team completed an excellent season in the NCAA Super Regional, with the Golden Bears falling to No. 7 Georgia in a tight battle. The Bears ended 2023-24 with a 20-7 record and No. 10 team ranking, while Valentina Ivanov, Hannah Viller Moeller, Mao Mushika and Katja Wiersholm competed in the NCAA individual tournaments to close out the year. Numerous Bears earned season-ending rankings in singles – No. 38 Ivanov, No. 53 Viller Moeller, No. 60 Jessica Alsola and No. 65 Wiersholm – and doubles – No. 18 Mushika/Viller Moeller, No. 45 Alsola/Ivanov and No. 89 Alsola/Wiersholm. Viller Moeller and Ivanov earned All-Pac-12 First-Team selection, Wiersholm and Jessica Alsola claimed second-team status, and Mushika and Lan Mi garnered honorable mention. Team highlights included defeating No. 16 Oklahoma in the ITA Kickoff Weekend to advance to the ITA National Team Indoor Championship and beating other ranked opponents including No. 3 Pepperdine, No. 8 UCLA and No. 15 San Diego. Wiersholm and Viller Moeller were named Collegiate Sports Communicators Academic All-Americans and joined Alsola and Ivanov on the CSC Academic All-District Team. The Bears collected a Newmark Award for posting the top GPA – a Cal Athletics-best 3.704 – during the previous year.

MEN'S TRACK & FIELD

California men's track & field had one of its greatest seasons in history, ending the year with a No. 25 national ranking and a combined 23 program top 10s. In the indoor season, three athletes – David Foster (60m), Skyler Magula (pole vault) and Rowan Hamilton (weight throw) broke school records; both Foster and Hamilton were later named Indoor All-Americans. The outdoor season was where the men truly shone; they concluded the regular season with the team's largest Big Meet margin of victory in 32 years before placing third at the Pac-12 Championships. Cal also fielded three Pac-12 champions (Hamilton, Magula and shot putter Jeff Duensing) and three additional Pac-12 medalists in Jai Williams (high jump), Jason Plumb (long jump) and Seth Johnson (decathlon); Hamilton's win was Cal's first in the event since 1919. At the NCAA Regional and Championships meets, the Bears tied a program record with nine All-Americans, while Foster (100m), Hamilton and the 4x100m relay team of Chase Williams, George Monroe, Mason Mangum and Foster each set new program records; Hamilton himself won Cal's first NCAA title in the men's hammer since 1922 and ended his season as the USTFCCA West Region and Pac-12 Men's Field Athlete of the Year. One other Cal athlete – competing unattached – made his mark on an entirely different level; after setting an Edwards Stadium record in his season opener, junior Mykolas Alekna took the sport by storm when he later broke the discus world record – the oldest such mark remaining in men's track & field – at just 21 years of age.

2023-24 SEASON RECAPS

WOMEN'S TRACK & FIELD

California women's track & field posted another solid season in 2024, combining for 26 program top 10s between the indoor and outdoor campaigns. Indoors, Busola Akinduro earned a Second-Team All-America nod in the women's triple jump, while Makhaila Mills set a school record in the 60m dash and Caisa-Marie Lindfors did the same in the shot put. The outdoor season saw two female discus throwers (Lindfors and Jasmine Blair) earn multiple accolades: Lindfors, the Pac-12 bronze medalist, broke the program record and ended the year ranked No. 4 in the nation, while Blair earned silver at the Pac-12 Championships and picked up her first Pac-12 Women's Field Athlete of the Week award. Pole vaulter Amari Turner was another standout for Cal, breaking the outdoor school record as well as a 13-year-old Big Meet Record while also earning Pac-12 Women's Field Athlete of the Week honors; meanwhile, sophomore hammer thrower Audrey Jacobs continued her young career with a new Dutch U23 record.

VOLLEYBALL

Under interim head coach Crissy Jones Schoonderwoerd and her staff, California volleyball exhibited a tremendous turnaround that included its second winning record in 10 years and an undefeated 11-0 record in nonconference play. The Golden Bears led the conference in digs per set and posted signature wins over both SoCal schools, defeating USC for the first time since 2014 and UCLA for the first time since 2018; Cal also collected 183 total service aces on the year, the most by any Bears team since 2007. Standout rookie Xueming (Maggie) Li was named Pac-12 Freshman of the Week six times in a campaign that eventually saw her named as a VolleyballMag All-America Honorable Mention, the AVCA Pacific West Freshman of the Year/an All-Region Honorable Mention, the Pac-12 Freshman of the Year and an All-Pac-12 honoree. Senior Tara DeSa and junior Annalea Maeder were both recognized as All-Pac-12 Honorable Mentions after their own outstanding seasons - DeSa also became the first Bear in history to have three career games over 30 digs, while Maeder recorded over 1,000 assists.

MEN'S WATER POLO

The two-time defending national champions began their quest for a three-peat with enormous confidence, thanks to the proven talent on their roster and an established championship pedigree led by an unforgettable eight-man senior class. With a target on their back, the Bears leaned on their tight-knit group bond to push through every obstacle, including losing two-time national player of the year Nikolaos Papanikolaou for nine games due to nagging injuries. When it all mattered most, the Bears proved that they were still the best team in the nation, knocking off USC 10-9 in a thrilling NCAA Semifinal before downing UCLA 13-11 behind one of the most dominant championship-game performances ever by Papanikolaou and five goals by Max Casabella. Papa became the program's first five-time All-American, won his third straight Cutino Award, and combined with head coach Kirk Everist as the first duo ever to three-peat as ACWPC coach and player of the year. Team USA goalkeeper Adrian Weinberg, Casabella, Roberto Valera and Albert Ponferrada were named All-Americans as well.

WOMEN'S WATER POLO

With two-time ACWPC All-American goalkeeper Isabel Williams returning for her fifth year, a host of veteran players at the top of their games, and a very talented batch of newcomers, Cal women's water polo had a feeling it could be embarking on a historic run - and it did exactly that. A unique preseason trip to Greece created team bonds that paid dividends, as the Bears hit the ground running by winning eight of their first nine games and earning as high as a No. 2 national ranking midway through the season. Cal earned its two largest wins over Stanford in the last three decades and an absolutely dominant Williams set the program's all-time career and single-season saves records during the postseason. Hosting its first NCAA Championship ever, the Bears cruised to their first NCAA title appearance since 2011. Head coach Coralie Simmons became the first female head coach in NCAA championship game history. Williams - one of five All-Americans on the squad alongside Maryn Dempsey, Elena Flynn, Mallory Reynoso and Rozanne Voorvelt - was later named the first Cutino Award winner in program history.

THIS IS CAL

Founded in the wake of the gold rush by leaders of the newly established 31st state, the University of California's flagship campus at Berkeley has become one of the preeminent universities in the world. Its early guiding lights, charged with providing education (both "practical" and "classical") for the state's people, gradually established a distinguished faculty (with 26 Nobel laureates to date, including 11 current faculty), a stellar research library and over 350 academic degree programs.

This California institution became a catalyst of economic growth and social innovation – the place where vitamin E was discovered, a lost Scarlatti opera found, the flu virus identified and the nation's first no-fault divorce law drafted. Scholars at Cal have conducted groundbreaking research on urban street gangs and basic human nutritional requirements, identified why wartime supply ships were failing at sea, invented technologies to build faster and cheaper computer chips, and imaged the infant universe.

In recognition of broad and deep excellence, respected sources have repeatedly ranked the University at or near the top in fields ranging from engineering and the "hard" sciences to the social sciences, arts and humanities. Among undergraduate programs ranked by peer academics, Berkeley shared the top spot in the 2024 national U.S. News rankings for its undergraduate psychology, environmental/environmental health, civil, data analytics/science and undergraduate economics programs. Additionally, graduate school programs and disciplines at Berkeley that placed in the Top 10 this year are computer science (No. 1), public affairs (No. 4), social work (No. 4), business (No. 7), public health (No. 10).

In accordance with the University's "public" character, Cal has long served talented individuals regardless of means. As early as 1897, financial aid was available for "needy and deserving" students.

Well over a century later, Cal combines outstanding teaching and research programs with broad access for students of all means. From 10 faculty members, 40 students and three fields of study at the time of its founding, UC Berkeley has grown to more than 1,600 faculty and 35,000 students and over 300 degree programs in 130 academic departments and 80 interdisciplinary research units.

30% percent of freshmen at UC Berkeley are the first in their families to attend college.

CAL STUDENT BODY

Number of Students (Fall 2023)	45,699
Undergraduate	33,078
Graduate	12,621
Degree Recipients (2022-23)
Bachelor	8,849
Master	4,380
Doctorate	840
Total	14,069

CAL FACTS

- UC Berkeley has one of the top university library systems in the nation. With well over 13 million volumes that represent more than 400 languages, Berkeley's library holdings across its 20-plus libraries are the fourth-largest among public universities nationwide
- According to U.S. News and World Report, Cal ranks fourth in global universities and first amongst public universities.
- Thirty-five Nobel prizes held by alumni.
- Cal ranks first all-time as the top producer of Peace Corps volunteers.
- More than 6,000 graduate and undergraduate students served community-based organizations, government offices and schools in 2022-23.
- There are 564,391 living Berkeley alumni.
- The average GPA of admitted freshmen at Cal is 3.92.

15 COLLEGES AND SCHOOLS

- Haas School of Business
- College of Chemistry
- Division of Computing, Data Science & Society
- Graduate School of Education
- College of Engineering
- College of Environmental Design
- School of Information
- Graduate School of Journalism
- School of Law
- College of Letters & Science
- Rausser College of Natural Resources
- School of Optometry
- School of Public Health
- Richard & Rhoda Goldman School of Public Policy
- School of Social Welfare

CAL STUDENT-ATHLETE FACTS

- Six Golden Bear programs registered perfect multi-year marks of 1,000 while another nine teams tallied scores of 900 or better. Cal also tied for its third-best overall single-year (2022-23) mark ever at 989
- Cal Athletics tied its all-time best performance in Graduation Success Rate (GSR), according to the latest data released this year by the NCAA. The Golden Bears posted an overall GSR of 91 percent, which matches the all-time high set by the department last year. Six Cal teams achieved a perfect GSR mark of 100 percent while 18 had a rate of at least 90 percent.
- For 10 straight years from 2003-12, Cal finished among the top 15 in the Directors' Cup, a national ranking that measures overall success in intercollegiate athletics programs. Cal has finished in the top 20 in 19 consecutive seasons until the cancellation of the Directors' Cup in 2019-20 broke the Bears' streak.
- Cal has captured 104 team national championships within 15 different sports.
- Cal has also won 331 non-team national championships.
- Cal sent 55 athletes and 3 coaches to the 2024 Summer Olympics in Paris. Golden Bears collected 23 medals - 5 gold, 10 silver and 8 bronze. Cal has now accumulated 223 medals all-time, dating back to the 1920 Summer Games in Antwerp, Belgium.

CAL FOOTBALL TRADITIONS

From the victory cannon atop Tightwad Hill, the card stunts in the student section, to Cal's mascot Oski, roaming the sidelines at California Memorial Stadium, Cal football is rich in tradition and history. Cal football traditions start as far back as the Cal Rally Committee in 1901, to more recent ones like Pappy's Boys in 1986 and the March to Victory in 2002.

BIG C

The Big C is located on Charter Hill above California Memorial Stadium and was constructed in 1905 by the classes of 1907 and 1908. The road up to the Big C was built in 1916 by the male members of the Cal student body in three-and-a-half hours, using 2,000 picks and shovels that were donated by the Southern Pacific Railroad. The Rally Committee became the custodians and guardians of the Big C sometime after 1952. Since then, the Committee has been in charge of painting the C and protecting it from vandalism.

BLUE AND GOLD

The official colors of the University of California were established at Berkeley in 1868. The colors were chosen by the University's founders, who were mostly Yale men who had come West. They selected gold as a color representing the "Golden State" of California. The blue was selected from Yale blue. Cal teams have donned the blue and gold since the beginning of intercollegiate athletic competition in 1882.

CAL BAND

The University of California Marching Band has been a tradition for over 125 years, exemplifying many of the best aspects of student life at one of the nation's most prestigious public universities. It boasts over 200 members, a student-run management and a unique high-step marching style, all of which combine to make it one of the most singular bands of its kind.

CALIFORNIA LETTERMAN'S CLUB

Cal's football alumni association, the California Letterman's Club, is an active organization that supports the Golden Bear football program. Formerly known as the Sons of California, the group was created several years ago to continue the relationships that were forged on the football field. Each year, the Letterman's Club has a reunion at a home game and holds a fundraising golf tournament in the spring. In addition, the club sponsors a reception at the end of the year for graduating football players and honor a deserving alumnus with the Glenn T. Seaborg Award named for the renowned Nobel Laureate and former University of California Chancellor.

CALIFORNIA FOOTBALL

CALIFORNIA VICTORY CANNON

The California Victory Cannon was presented to the Rally Committee in time for the 1963 Big Game by the class of 1964. At home games, it is shot off at the beginning of each game, after each score and after each Cal victory. Only once, against Pacific on Sept. 7, 1991, did the Bears score too many times, racking up 12 touchdowns before the cannon ran out of ammunition. The cannon, which was originally kept on the sidelines, has been mounted on Tightwad Hill above California Memorial Stadium since 1971. In 2011, the cannon was present for home games at AT&T Park but was not fired due to clearance regulations.

CARD STUNTS

Cal began this activity for the 1910 "Big Game", a rugby match between Cal and Stanford. The original stunts performed that afternoon depicted the Stanford Axe and a big blue "C" formed on a white background. The tradition has been a crowd favorite at California Memorial Stadium, as several times each season Cal students perform as many as 10 different stunts, using more than 5,000 cards. The painstaking process of plotting the positions of the cards, which once took days to complete, is now aided by computers that add to the precision of the images produced in the card section.

GOLDEN BEARS

In 1895, the California track and field team was the dominant power on the West Coast and decided to challenge several of the top teams in the Midwest and East on an eight-meet tour that is now credited by many historians as putting Cal Athletics onto the national scene. As a symbol of the University, Regent Arthur Rodgers, class of 1872, commissioned a blue silk banner emblazoned with a golden grizzly bear, the symbol of the state of California. The banner was carried by the team on its successful tour, which saw them win five of the eight competitions. Cal fans were so ecstatic over the team's performance that professor Charles Mills Gayley was inspired to write the song "The Golden Bear." Cal teams have been known as the Golden Bears ever since.

MARCH TO VICTORY

In 2002, Cal began the March to Victory. Approximately two-and-a-half hours before kickoff each home game, the Spirit Group form a human tunnel on the grand staircase just outside the north tunnel of California Memorial Stadium to cheer on the team as it exits the buses to march into the locker room.

PAPPY'S BOYS

Founded in 1986, Pappy's Boys is an organization of more than 500 former Golden Bears who played under legendary Cal football coach Lynn "Pappy" Waldorf. Not only does the group get together to relive the success of the Cal teams during the Waldorf era, but it also supports the current program in many ways. Recent efforts include establishing a $400,000 endowment for football scholarships and raising funds for two of the most recent additions to campus statuary: Waldorf kneeling near Faculty Glade and the giant grizzly bear by California Memorial Stadium. Waldorf compiled a 67-32-4 record as head coach at Cal from 1947-56. For the 1948-50 seasons, Waldorf guided the Bears to a 39-3-1 record and three consecutive Rose Bowls. He was inducted into the National Football Foundation Hall of Fame in 1966 and into the Cal Athletic Hall of Fame in 1987. In the late 1990s, Pappy's Boys produced a book, "Pappy's Boys, The Rose Bowl Years: A Legacy of Winning," which was edited by Sports Illustrated writer Ron Fimrite and produced by former Cal quarterback Dick Erickson. In the spring of 2015, the group unveiled the Lynn O. Waldorf Seating Area and Pappy's Bench by Gate 4 at California Memorial Stadium. The area of rest, contemplation and gathering, a gift of Pappy's Boys in memory of Cal's coach and mentor, is dedicated to Golden Bear student-athletes. It recognizes their pursuit of excellence in academics, athletics, and life.

CALIFORNIA FOOTBALL

TIGHTWAD HILL

For decades, enterprising Cal fans have hiked to Tightwad Hill high above the northeast corner of California Memorial Stadium. Not only does the perch provide a free look at the action on the field, but it also offers a spectacular view of San Francisco Bay and many of the area bridges to the west.

SPIRIT GROUPS

The Cal Spirit groups are responsible for promoting all spirit-related activities and are active at home events, as well as many away contests. They act as ambassadors of the University by assisting with alumni functions, fundraising events, and other occasions.

The Rally Committee, the oldest student group on campus upholds school spirit and tradition. Above and beyond producing all rallies on campus, Rally Com is responsible for maintaining the Big C, displaying the California banner, the Cal flags, and constructing and executing card stunts at football games.

Cal Cheerleading is an integral part of Cal Spirit. You can see the cheerleaders at all football games, men's and women's basketball, volleyball, and other events.

The Cal Dance Team dances to traditional Cal fight songs and Cal Band rock songs. During the football season, they perform on a platform that is elevated off the football field. They participate as well in various rallies, alumni, and community events.

Cal Mic Men are student leaders of the rooting sections at all Cal sporting events. In addition, they emcee at rallies, alumni, and community events.

SONGS OF CAL

Through the years, Cal has collected numerous songs that are popular with its alumni and fans alike. Two songs are regularly heard during the team's football games. Those songs include the familiar fight song entitled "Big C," a brisk marching tune composed by N.S. McLaren and H.P. Williams of the class of 1914. The other is the Cal Alma Mater, "Hail to California," written and composed by Clinton R. "Brick" Morse, class of 1896.

Cal has had at least one player on a Super Bowl roster in 20 of the last 24 games. Marshawn Lynch and Brandon Mebane led the Seattle Seahawks to a world championship in Super Bowl XLVIII in 2013, while Shane Vereen and the New England Patriots defeated Lynch and Mebane the following year in Super Bowl XLIX. In 2016, C.J. Anderson led the Denver Broncos to the franchise's third Super Bowl victory with a win over the Carolina Panthers in Super Bowl 50 at Levi's Stadium in Santa Clara, Calif. The Panthers' head coach was former Cal linebacker Ron Rivera. Alex Mack and the Atlanta Falcons competed in Super Bowl LI. The following year, Mychal Kendricks helped the Philadelphia Eagles defeat New England in Super Bowl LII. Bryce Treggs was on the Eagles' practice roster as well. In 2019, Jared Goff and C.J. Anderson led the Los Angeles Rams into Super Bowl LIII. Mitchell Schwartz was on the Kansas City Chiefs for their back-to-back Super Bowl appearances in 2020-21 and he earned a ring from Super Bowl LIV.

DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

JIM KNOWLTON

DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS - UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA, BERKELEY

Jim Knowlton, who has established himself as a dynamic leader and accomplished administrator through service in intercollegiate athletics and the U.S. Army, is in his seventh year as Director of Athletics at Cal after formally moving into the role on May 21, 2018.

Knowlton served as AD at Air Force for three years before his move to Berkeley, and he previously spent seven years overseeing the athletic department at Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute, where he was named the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics (NACDA) Athletic Director of the Year.

Throughout his career, Knowlton has focused on and successfully fostered programs that place a premium on leadership and character development among student-athletes, coaches and staff. He has demonstrated an unfailing commitment to high achievement, both in academics and athletics, has a proven track record as a fundraiser, and has shown a consistent ability to take on complex challenges and develop strategic solutions to meet them.

At Cal, Knowlton is the school's 24th director of athletics and oversees an athletics program that sponsors 30 sports and supports more than 850 student-athletes.

During his first year in Berkeley in 2018-19, Knowlton embarked on a number of initiatives across many different areas, from academics and athletic performance to gender equity, budget and culture. Prominently among them was his Listening Days plan for all 30 teams and 15 administrative units. After a set period of discussion and analysis, priorities were determined for each program for implementation in an efficient and deliberate manner, all with a goal to move Cal Athletics, using his words, from good to great.

Knowlton also oversaw the development of a mission, vision and strategic plan for the athletic department, a nearly yearlong collaborative process announced in August of 2019. The following year saw Cal Athletics launch the Cameron Institute, an innovative program that supports student-athletes in career development, community engagement, high performance and well-being, and leadership and personal development. The department also hired its first Associate Athletic Director for Diversity, Equity, Inclusion, Belonging and Justice in 2020.

Over the course of Knowlton's tenure, Cal teams have captured nine team national championships. Cal student-athletes have also won more than 20 individual, relay or boat national titles during that span. In addition, the Cal football team has earned three bowl berths, including a win over Illinois in the 2019 Redbox Bowl, and featured more than 100 students, alumni and coaches that have participated in each of the past two Summer Olympics.

On the academic front, Cal Athletics has posted its highest department Academic Progress Rate ever with a score of 989 on two different occasions. The department has also recorded its highest Graduation Success at 91 percent in each of the last two years.

In addition to his time at Cal, Air Force and RPI, Knowlton is a former student-athlete and one-time faculty member at Army West Point, where he also served as both a deputy director of athletics and interim athletic director at Army from 2003-06.

Outside of collegiate athletics, Knowlton taught in the civil and mechanical engineering department at Army West Point, and he held several leadership positions over more than two decades in the U.S. Army, including as head of a battalion of 750 men and women while stationed at Ft. Carson, Colo., before deploying to Iraq. He retired from the Army in 2008 as a colonel with 26 years of service.

Knowlton received his bachelor's degree in engineering in 1982 from Army West Point, where he was a four-year letter-winner and captain of the varsity ice hockey team. After 10 years of organizational leadership positions of increasing responsibility in the U.S. Army, Knowlton received a master's degree in civil engineering from Cornell University and returned to Army West Point in 1992 to teach.

Knowlton's career in athletics administration began as deputy director of athletics at Army West Point in 2003, where he oversaw more than 200 staff and supervised 25 intercollegiate teams with more than 1,000 student-athletes. After three years in the department, he left to become director of the Center for Enhanced Performance at West Point, leading a staff of 50 professionals who delivered training for peak performance in athletics, academics and military endeavors to cadets, soldiers and athletes both on and off campus.

Knowlton began his tenure as the Air Force athletics director in March of 2015, and the Falcons soon experienced unprecedented success. During his first two years at the helm, Air Force teams combined for nine conference championships - the most during a two-year span in school history. During the 2016-17 season alone, Falcon coaches won six conference coach of the year awards and 38 cadets earned All-America honors. Air Force also led the service academies in the Learfield Directors' Cup standings for the sixth consecutive season.

Knowlton's influence at Air Force extended well beyond the competition arena as the Falcons made significant strides in community and alumni outreach, facility improvements, corporate sponsorships and fundraising. He led the development and implementation of a strategic plan for the athletic department, and also introduced a culture and climate officer who developed a healthy relationship training model that was incorporated into all intercollegiate teams.

Among the outreach efforts under Knowlton's watch were the creation of a fan engagement committee, a fall concert series and external speaking engagements by coaches and staff to various community groups. Additionally, Air Force hosted the NACDA Spring Symposium, which brought together more than 100 athletic directors from across the country to learn about leadership and character development, as well as sexual assault prevention.

Prior to Air Force, Knowlton served as director of athletics at Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute in Troy, N.Y., from 2008 until 2015. While that school primarily competes at the NCAA Division III level, it also supports Division I men's and women's ice hockey programs. Among his accomplishments, Knowlton helped develop a strategic vision for the athletic department, implemented a new branding strategy, and facilitated renovations to RPI's field house, as well as construction of the $102 million first phase of RPI's East Campus Athletic Village. For his efforts, Knowlton was chosen the Under Armour Division III Athletic Director of the Year in 2011.

Knowlton also represented RPI on the national level, including on the NACDA Executive Committee, the board of College Hockey, Inc., and as chair of the NCAA Division I Men's Ice Hockey Committee.

Knowlton is a registered professional engineer in the state of Virginia. He and his wife, Corey, have five sons: Jimmy, Patrick, Christopher, Mark and Shawn.

Josh Hummel has spent the last five years leading the Facilities and Events unit for Cal Athletics. He also serves as the Department's lead on minor and major capital projects providing project management from design through construction. He is the sports administrator for three sports - women's gymnastics, volleyball, and women's tennis - and was named the Region 5 Gymnastics Administrator of the Year in 2021 and 2023. Josh serves as a member of the department's Director's cabinet and is heavily involved in the strategic direction of the department, navigating the changes in the athletics environment and providing crisis management.

Prior to his current role, Josh spent 2 years at San Jose State serving as a Senior Associate Athletic Director and CFO. He began his athletics career at Cal in 2009 working in the business office. Prior to his entry into college athletics, he spent 5 years as a media and entertainment consultant at Accenture. Following college, Josh worked in minor league baseball as a radio broadcaster in the Carolina League with two different teams.

Josh is a proud graduate of Virginia Tech. He lives in Walnut Creek, Ca with his wife Kristin, and children Zachary, Kenzie and Cody

JAY LARSON

SENIOR ASSOCIATE ATHLETICS DIRECTOR, ADMINISTRATION

Jay Larson serves as the sport administrator for the football program. In this role, in concert with the Athletic Director, he manages all aspects of the football program including day-to-day operations, scheduling, budget, personnel, student-athlete experience and capital improvements.

Larson also serves as the sport administrator for the women's water polo and men's tennis programs. He serves as the department's liaison to various offices on campus, including admissions, housing, and government relations.

Larson began his tenure with Cal Athletics in 2015. Prior to that, he spent seven years as an athletics administrator at San Diego State University and three years at the University of Minnesota. Larson earned a bachelor's degree from Minnesota State University, Mankato, where he participated on the basketball team. He earned a juris doctor degree from the University of Minnesota Law School, where he served as a managing editor of the Minnesota Law Review.

He and his wife, Mary, have three sons, Kai, Roman, and AJ, and reside in El Cerrito.

BETH TAFOLLA-VOETSCH

SENIOR ASSOCIATE ATHLETICS DIRECTOR, CHIEF DEVELOPMENT OFFICER

Beth Tafolla-Voetsch, a proven leader in collegiate athletics and veteran member of Cal Athletics, earned the role of Senior Associate Athletics Director, Chief Development Officer, in December of 2021.

Tafolla-Voetsch has spent over a decade leading people and teams to drive and increase revenue and philanthropy in partnership and alignment with the community's passions and interests. She has amassed almost two decades of experience on the external side of the industry across four institutions: Marshall University, University of Miami, Stanford University, and the University of California, Berkeley. Valuing the opportunity to support student-athletes' access to a world-class education while competing at the highest level of intercollegiate athletics, Tafolla-Voetsch has risen up through the department as a senior leader.

In her role at Cal, she leads the 25-person development office and its efforts to support the athletic department's 30 intercollegiate programs and 850 student-athletes, including principal and leadership gifts, donor and alumni engagement, annual support and the endowment seating program. She also leads culture-building and succession efforts within the organization and has led the team through multiple periods of change.

Tafolla-Voetsch received her bachelor's degree in sports administration from Wingate University, where she competed as a swimming student-athlete and was named captain twice. She holds a Master's of Science in sports administration from Marshall University.

Tafolla-Voetsch and her wife, Ann, live in Castro Valley with their pups.

GORDON BAYNE

ASSOCIATE ATHLETIC DIRECTOR, SPORT ADMINISTRATION

Now in his 31st season with the Golden Bears, Gordon Bayne was promoted to Associate Athletic Director, Sport Administration in 2020. He serves as the sports administrator for women's basketball, field hockey, women's rowing, softball and men's water polo.

He is also involved in football gameday operations, a task he has done for numerous years. In his previous position as an associate athletic director for event management, Bayne and his six-person full-time staff coordinated all home game-day operations and activities.

Additionally, Bayne has served as an event representative with the Oakland Coliseum Complex, Allegiant Stadium, and the Pac-12 Conference. He has worked several high-profile events and concerts including the NBA Finals, the National Championship Football game, and several Pac-12 Football Championship games and Pac-12 basketball tournaments.

A Berkeley native, Bayne received his bachelor's degree in physical education from Hampton University and his master's degree in sports administration from Temple University. He and his wife, Tamara, live in Alameda and have two children, Kiara and Marcus.

KAT BROWN

ASSOCIATE ATHLETICS DIRECTOR, COMPLIANCE & STUDENT SERVICES

Kat Brown was appointed Associate Athletics Director, Compliance and Student Services in February 2024. In this role, she is responsible for all aspects of Cal's compliance efforts, including educating student-athletes, coaches, staff and the Cal community on NCAA legislation; serving as the liaison to the conference office for legislative and governance matters; guiding the department's athletic scholarship operations and eligibility certification process; and promoting a compliant culture across Cal Athletics.

Brown has spent the past seven years working in Cal's compliance office, most recently serving as Assistant Athletics Director for Compliance. She is a former Volleyball student-athlete and graduated from Cal in 2013. Following her graduation from Cal, she went on to earn a law degree at the University of San Diego.

JUSTIN DITOLLA

ASSOCIATE ATHLETICS DIRECTOR, COMPLIANCE & STUDENT SERVICES

Justin DiTolla was appointed Associate Athletics Director of Name, Image and Likeness (NIL) in February 2024. In this role, he is responsible for managing all aspects of the University's NIL efforts, including Golden, the official NIL program of Cal Athletics. Golden incorporates world-class resources available at the University of California, Berkeley, including a partnership with the Haas School of Business and Berkeley Law. Along with his NIL responsibilities, DiTolla also serves as the sport administrator for the Beach Volleyball program.

DiTolla began his tenure with Cal Athletics in 2021 as the Associate Athletics Director, Compliance and Student Services. Prior to that, he spent four years as an Assistant Athletics Director at Syracuse University, four years at UCLA and two years at the University of Oregon. DiTolla earned his bachelor's degree in business and finance from the University of San Diego, where he was a football student-athlete for the 2007-08 seasons. He is currently working on obtaining his MBA from Syracuse University.

DIRECTOR'S CABINET

TY-RON DOUGLAS, PHD

ASSOCIATE ATHLETICS DIRECTOR, DIVERSITY, EQUITY, INCLUSION, BELONGING & JUSTICE

Dr. Ty-Ron Douglas serves as the first-ever Associate Athletic Director for Diversity, Equity, Inclusion, Belonging & Justice (DEIBJ) at Cal. In his role, Dr. Douglas and his DEIBJ Team mobilize DEIBJ frameworks to educate, celebrate and accelerate our DEIBJ training, sensibilities, programs, policies, and practices—with a focus on underrepresented and historically marginalized populations. He serves as a thought-leader, morale-lifter, and advocate for student-athletes, coaches, staff and administrators, and a liaison to other constituents across campus.

Dr. Douglas came to Berkeley from the University of Missouri, where he was an Associate Professor in the Department of Educational Leadership and Policy Analysis and an affiliate faculty member in the university's Black Studies Program.

While Douglas is an educator, he is also an activist, public speaker and author. He is the founder of a community organization that bridges community, corporations and university affiliations to uplift youth. He has directed research studies and consulted for various collegiate and professional athletic organizations, including a NCAA funded study on the identities of Black male student-athletes and research on the journeys of South African female Olympic hopefuls.

Dr. Douglas grew up in Bermuda and earned his bachelor's degree in English with a minor in sociology from Oakwood University in Alabama. He went on to earn master's degrees from the University of Alabama in Huntsville and Andrews University, and a Ph.D. from the University of North Carolina-Greensboro. Dr. Douglas has written or edited five books and over 25 journal articles.

MARISSA NICHOLS, PHD

ASSOCIATE ATHLETICS DIRECTOR, STUDENT-ATHLETE DEVELOPMENT - DIRECTOR, CAMERON INSTITUTE

Dr. Marissa Nichols, one of the leaders in intercollegiate student-athlete development, was named the first-ever Associate Athletics Director and Director of the newly formed Cameron Institute in August 2019. A former NCAA Woman of the Year finalist and Division I First-Team All-American, Nichols has spent 13 years in leadership roles within higher education. Under Dr. Nichols' leadership, the Cameron Institute—a $19 million endowed, 11-member start-up organization—delivers comprehensive, data-driven services and interventions for student-athletes and coaches. A builder at the core, she has served in four inaugural roles across three institutions, including UNLV, Boston University, and the University of California, Berkeley.

Dr. Nichols' formal training encompasses a Ph.D. in Higher Education Leadership and an M.Ed. in Guidance Counseling. Identifying as a practitioner-scholar, her research focused on examining factors tied to collegiate student-athlete success. Dr. Nichols has delivered over 40 academic presentations and conference talks with organizations such as the National Association of Academic & Student-Athlete Development Professionals (N4A), the American Educational Research Association (AERA), and the Professional Association of Athlete Development Specialists (PAADS). Nichols has authored pieces for the Journal of Issues in Intercollegiate Athletics and the National Association of College Directors of Athletics (NACDA) Publication.

In 2023, Nichols was appointed to an At-Large Position on the NACDA-N4A Board of Directors. Her main charge was building Phase 2 of the industry's inaugural White Paper, which she helped produce as a part of an appointed Task Force to set professional industry standards. In 2022, she received N4A's Professional Excellence Award and was selected as a faculty member for the Steve McDonnell Professional Development Institute. Nichols is certified as a Certified ROI practitioner through the ROI Institute, an Effective Facilitator through the NCAA, and a DiSC practitioner through Wiley.

JONATHAN OKANES

ASSOCIATE ATHLETIC DIRECTOR, COMMUNICATIONS

Jonathan Okanes is the Associate Athletic Director for Communications for Cal Athletics. Now in his 13th year in Berkeley, Okanes oversees an 11-member staff charged with telling the story of all 30 Golden Bear athletic programs.

Okanes, a former journalist for the Bay Area News Group who covered Cal Athletics as a beat reporter for nine years, also is the editor of the Cal Sports Quarterly magazine and the chairperson of the Cal Athletics Hall of Fame committee. He has won 15 CSC/Fred Stabley District Writing Awards during his career.

In his role as a reporter for the Bay Area News Group, Okanes covered some of the biggest events in sports – including the World Series, Super Bowl, NCAA men's basketball tournament, BCS Championship Game and Stanley Cup Playoffs. He was also on the voting panel of the Associated Press men's basketball top 25 and a member of the Baseball Writers Association of America.

Okanes has worked directly with several of Cal's teams during his time on campus, including volleyball, women's water polo, men's soccer, men's water polo, beach volleyball, women's golf, men's and women's rowing and men's and women's swimming.

Okanes earned his bachelor's degree in Communication Studies from UC Santa Barbara. He lives in Walnut Creek with his wife, Jennifer, and two teenage sons – Ryan and Evan.

JOEY SWANNER

GENERAL MANAGER OF CAL BEARS SPORTS PROPERTIES

Joey Swanner joined Cal Athletics in 2022 leading sponsorship efforts with Cal Bears Sports Properties (Learfield). Swanner and his entire CBSP team have the mission of enhancing the relationship between brands and companies from across the country with Cal Athletics and our student athletes. Learfield serves as the exclusive multi-media rights partner of Cal Athletics. Joey has been a member of the Director's Cabinet since his arrival on campus and has an integral role in the strategic efforts, decisions, and priorities of the department as Cal strives to stay at the forefront and a leader in college athletics.

This is Joey's ninth season with Learfield. Prior to his current role, he spent three years serving as the Senior Manager at TCU (Learfield).

Joey and his wife, Lindy, along with their daughter, Scotti, reside in Walnut Creek.

TARIK GLENN

INTERIM EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR OF THE ATHLETIC STUDY CENTER

Tarik is currently serving as the Interim Executive Director of the Athletic Study Center. Alongside this position, he holds the role of Deputy Director of Operations for the center. Tarik's connection to UC Berkeley dates back to 1993 when he embarked on his academic journey as a freshman, ultimately earning a degree in Social Welfare.

As a former member of the Cal football team, Tarik's exceptional performance earned him a well-deserved place in the Cal Athletics Hall of Fame. Following a successful career in the National Football League, Tarik joined the staff of the Athletic Study Center in 2014, reigniting his passion for the campus.

For the past decade, Tarik has been devoted to providing comprehensive

CAMPUS ADMINISTRATION

RICH LYONS

UC BERKELEY CHANCELLOR

Rich Lyons began his term as the 12th Chancellor of the University of California, Berkeley, on July 1, 2024, as the first undergraduate alum to serve as Chancellor, receiving his BS degree from Berkeley in 1982. He returned to Berkeley in 1993, joining the faculty after earning his Ph.D. in Economics from MIT and following six years on the faculty at Columbia University.

Rich's pioneering work as a scholar focuses on how information within a society is aggregated and expressed in price signals, which in turn helps societies to make better decisions. Most of that work focuses on international exchange rates, i.e., the prices of all of one country's goods and services relative to another. His book The Microstructure Approach to Exchange Rates was instrumental in defining the field.

Lyons is also known for culture leadership – anchoring institutions on distinctive values that help create a cohesive community with a shared understanding of, and support for, the mission. He is a powerful advocate for public higher education that is both accessible and excellent, reflected in his favored phrase that, "It is stunning – singular even – what Berkeley is able to achieve at the scale that it achieves it."

Prior to serving as Chancellor, Rich served as both the Dean of Berkeley's Haas School of Business and, over the most recent 4+ years, led the development and expansion of innovation and entrepreneurship campuswide. He did not realize how much he would enjoy fundraising when he first took the Dean role: Partnering with others to fund the future of the institution that has had more impact on his life than any other has been enjoyable and meaningful.

Rich is an ardent supporter of the student experience, which comes in part from his own experience of the transformative effect of a Berkeley education. In 1998 he was awarded the Distinguished Teaching Award, Berkeley's highest teaching award, which recognizes "sustained excellence in teaching that incites intellectual curiosity in students, inspires colleagues, and makes students aware of significant relationships between the academy and the world at large."

In June 2023, Chancellor Christ announced she will be stepping down from her position and retiring at the end of June 2024.

OLIVER M. O'REILLY

FACULTY ATHLETICS REPRESENTATIVE

Oliver M. O'Reilly, the Vice Provost for Undergraduate Education and a Distinguished Professor of Mechanical Engineering, serves as Cal's Faculty Athletics Representative (FAR).

Appointed as the FAR in 2022, O'Reilly provides oversight and advice to Cal Athletics concerning compliance with NCAA rules and student-athlete academic matters. He represents Cal in dealings with both the NCAA and the ACC and advises the Chancellor on campus policies relating to student-athletes.

Born and raised in Ireland, O'Reilly has a BE degree from the University of Galway and an MS and PhD degrees from Cornell University in Theoretical and Applied Mechanics. Following a postdoc at ETH-Zurich, Switzerland, he joined UC Berkeley as a faculty member in 1992.

O'Reilly is a recipient of several awards including UC Berkeley's Distinguished Teaching Award in 1999, the Pi Tau Sigma Professor of the Year Award in 2003, the Tau Beta Pi Outstanding Faculty of the Year Award in 2013, and the Berkeley Faculty Service Award in 2021.
